Public Depn

Sec. of States Despatch No 4 d/17th May/83.

Dr. Oates of the Guernsey College pressed the S. of S. to touch up Whiteside for his debt, last year — vide S. of S.'s Despatch 26th Oct last; & here we are again!

We wrote to Whiteside at the time both formally & demi officially — To the d/o he replied d/o that he cd. not understand how it had happened, as he sent his London Agents lots of money for Mrs. W. & his children — It appears clear however from his letter that Mrs. W. thinks her own allowance insufficient, & that the Agents by giving her what else she wants leave themselves without means to pay the schoolmasters. Very hard on Dr. Oates, poor man; Delirant reges &c!

However it is most unsatisfactory that we have not seen to Whiteside all these months — The Secretariat ought to have a list, to be periodically scrutinised, of all unanswered letters. Here more than six months has elapsed, without any 'reminder' being Sent to Whiteside, who has kept meanwhile all the enclosures handed in by Dr. Oates, as vouchers of his claim for £266 odd.

I think Whiteside shd. be very seriously addressed; his negligence in money matters once before nearly brought him into serious trouble – I put up the papers. We bought him a house at Chittoor, when he was Collr. there, & made him pay so much a month rent for it – As the representative of Govt. in N. Arcot, it was his duty to be as punctual in collecting this rent as any revenue due by Zamindars & ryots – but it was found after three years that he had paid nothing; he then promised to pay sharp, but still kept us waiting some months. Now if this had been done by a Tahsildar!

June 9/3.

I do not in the least wish to defend Whiteside if he has failed to pay his childrens school bills but he argues that he regularly remits money for the purpose to his agents at home and that they have failed to carry out his instructions. In his letter of Nov: 20. 1882 he said he wd write at once & insist on Mr. Oates being paid – I do not see that the Secretariat are to be blamed – the G.O. did not call for an answer but supposed that Whiteside wd at once take steps for getting rid of the scandal – Apparently he has not done so & I quite agree with my Honble. Colleague that he should be seriously admonished and also informed that if any further communication of a like nature is recd the Govt will be obliged to remove him from his present high position

But — having done this — could we not mildly remonstrate with the S.S. in regard to the action taken by him in the matter? It surely is no part of the duty of that high functionary or of the Govt. of Madras to recover the debts due by public servants to private individuals — It is possible that Whiteside owes money to his wine merchant & his grocer — are we to recover their dues for them? The established courts are open to them and to the schoolmaster — let them implead Whiteside & if he is cast we might then come down upon him for disgraceful conduct; but in the present condition of matters we are placed in an invidious & I think a quite unprecedented position

H.S.

11/6. Better talk it over in Council on Wednesday

S. of S.'s Despatch about Mr. Whiteside.

It is an old established custom for the S of S to send dispatches of this kind. Whether it is a good custom is another question; but we had better leave it alone.

I think Whiteside should be told distinctly that if we receive any further complaints he must resign his seat at the Board. We cannot have scandals amongst men at the head of the Service

Council

I agree with His Excellency the Governor on both points. — In the Army similar action is taken by the Horse Guards authorities on receipt of appeals from tradesmen and others, as has been done in the present instance by the Sec: of State —

I would warn Mr. Whiteside that any further complaints will necessitate his resigning his appointment. The reasons for non-payment of Mr. Oates' claims seem to me to carry no weight. J.R.

In Public 2015/83

Madras

From
W. S. Whiteside Esq
Madras Civil Service
To The Hon. C. G. Master
Chief Secretary to Govt.

Sir

I have the honour, in acknowledging receipt of G.O. dated 20th inst. No 1201 Pub. to state that immediately on the receipt of G.O. No 1448 dated 22nd Nov. 1882 I addressed to my agents in London peremptory instructions to pay at once to Mr. Oates the full amount of his claim out of the monies I owe, and am remitting to them regularly, month by month, through Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co of Madras. I append to this letter a Statement, furnished to me by Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co, from which it will be seen that in the last 14 months, (that is to say from April 1882 to June 1883) I have remitted to England, through my Agents, for the education of my sons and other expenses of my family, the sum of £1,668-10- at a cost of Rs 20,149-5-1, and this money my London Agents have received and disbursed in one way or another. The Government will thus perceive that when I wrote and insisted on the claim of Mr Oates being liquidated forthwith by my Agents I had good grounds for such directions, the sums of money they were and are receiving monthly being so large.

2. Receiving no assurance that the money had been paid I wrote again on the subject, and subsequently telegraphed in the most stringent terms insisting on attention being paid to my instructions.

Finally, becoming extremely anxious, I made arrangements to send a large additional remittance to meet this, and any other claim of the kind. This has been done. A sum of £345 has been remitted by telegraph by Messrs Arbuthnot & Co. on my account; and I am in a position to inform the Government that Mr Oates' claim has been paid in full.

3. I am so assured that the remittances I have made thus regularly have not been laid out by my London Agents in accordance with my instructions, which were primarily for the regular settlement of all school accounts, that I have placed the affair in the hands of Messrs Talbot and Tasker, Solicitors, of

with instructions to go through the accounts, and to call for

Vouchers of all payments out of my remittances for the last 4 years, that is to say since September 1879, during which time Messrs Richardson & Co have had entire control of my remittances

4. I need hardly express the very great regret and annoyance I feel at this matter having come before Government, especially seeing that no blame attaches to me, personally in connection therewith.

5. I return herewith the enclosures received with G.O. No 1448 dated 22nd Novr 1882

I have the honour to be

Order. 20 June 1883. No. 1201 Mis.

The Despatch read above will, with its enclosure, be communicated to Mr. W.S. Whiteside for early reply to the Secretary of State's enquiry.

2. As Mr. Whiteside has already been informed (G.O. 22d Nov. 1882, No. 1448 Mis.) no answer will be satisfactory to Government ~~except~~ unless it states either that Mr. Oates's claim has been discharged or that it is denied and will be resisted at law.

It is impossible to enter into a discussion of Mr. Whiteside's arrangements with his Agents, but it is observed that ~~his~~ ~~alleged~~ the instruction ~~to them of November last as to Mr Oater being paid forthwith has not been complied with~~.

To avoid the word "alleged" we might say perhaps the which Mr Whiteside mentions having given ~~to them~~ to them in Nov last has been wholly inoperative as Mr Oater has it would seem received no part of his demand

3. Mr. Whiteside will also be informed that if any further complaint of this nature is received by Government, it will be necessary that he should resign his seat at the Board.

Deposition of Kylasapuram Subba Rao Head Vernacular Clerk, Tinnevelly Collector's office

I have been Head Vernacular in the Collector's office since the beginning of 1882. Very shortly after Mr. Atkinson's arrival in this District in the end of June, his butler, Appasami, sent for me & asked me if I had heard of the gentleman and said that I should get money for him & keep it all secret. I said it was a very bad District and told him of the case of Deputy Collector Ramachendra Row and said I could not do anything of the kind. He told me not to be afraid and told me of a man ~~of~~ in a certain district, I forget the name of it, who was made a Deputy Collector by Mr. Atkinson. I then said that, if he insisted, I would send the parties to him - He asked me if there were any big cases pending and that he would get them transferred to my file - and that if any important cases came up I was to let him know.

He then alluded to a case against a Jail Warder and said that if he gave 2000 Rs he would get him released & the Jailor brought to trouble in his stead. I said I did not know anything of the case. On the first day of Mr. Atkinson's coming to office he asked who was the Vernacular Head Clerk & on my being pointed out to him said, "I shall soon get acquainted with him". At first, Mr. Atkinson treated me kindly & called me Subba Rao Garu, but afterwards he got angry with me and so having heard rumours that he took bribes I thought I would try and see how far what the butler said was true - and ~~learnt~~ because one day after hearing an appeal in which Mr. Atkinson said he would pronounce judgment the next day he asked me how the case should be decided, to which I replied "As your honour pleases". The first case in which money was given to me for the Collector was one from Avalnattam in which the General Charge Deputy Collector's order was reversed on appeal. I don't don't remember the names of the parties or the date. The appellant gave me 25 Rs which I gave to the butler - In another appeal from Khan Sahibpuram I got 35 Rs - Both these 2 sums I ~~gave~~ sent by peon Vanniappan to the butler - I got the money in each case before the appeal was heard & after they were decided I sent the money with a chit to the butler. After getting several bribes in this way, Mr. Atkinson said to me one day "you bring very small things" - This made me believe that it was true that he got the money - Some months ago, in 1883, the butler one day told me that the Collector wanted 1000 Rs. - I said there was a case between 2 brothers in Kil Viraragapuram - and I would arrange that the elder brother, on whose side the right was, should pay something - Accordingly I got 500 Rs. from the elder brother - Krishnayen (he is now dead) in notes and after keeping them for some days, he came to my house one day with the Collector's peon Vanniappan and I gave them back to him & he went away with them & with the peon. The case was decided in his favour. There were then 2 or 3 other cases pending, Revenue cases, also appeals against the orders of the Deputy Collector in charge of Tinnevelly Taluq, between the same parties. The 500 Rs. was paid in respect of all 3 cases. They were all decided in Krishnayar's favour. I did not keep a memo of the numbers of the notes. The first time I paid Mr. Atkinson any money with my own hand was at Nanguneri in the end of January or beginning of February last. The butler was not there & Dalayet Vanniappen was also not there. I gave him 2 notes of 50 Rs. which I had got for cash through the Nanguneri Sub-Registrar, who is my friend, from the Nanguneri Treasury. The money was paid by one Gopala Tevan of Satur Taluq (Shenkotta village) who had been ordered by the Revenue Board to be reinstated in Munsiffship of his village. He had offered the money to me before but I had then refused to receive it, but as the Board

Board had ordered his re-instatement. I sent for him & he brought the money. It was paid in cash to one Krishnayyan a copyist in the Collector's office, who brought it to me. I sent him to the Registrar, who got the money changed into notes & gave them to me. I gave them to the Collector the next day when I was taking him some papers. I wrote on a slip of paper "2 notes for 50 Rs each. There are notes for 200 Rs. or 300 at Tinnevelly". I gave the 2 notes for 50 Rs. each to Mr. Atkinson with my own hand. The other 200 or 300 Rs. were given by the Karnam of Tenkarai Village in Srivilliputtur Taluq, who was appointed to that office at Nanguneri. He gave me the money in cash here and I got the money changed for notes here at the Treasury and kept them in my house here. Mr. Atkinson asked me why I had left the money at Tinnevelly. I said I travelled at night and was afraid to take it with me. After our return to Palamcottah I took these other notes to Mr. Atkinson, at his bungalow and gave them to him or to the butler, with my own hand, I am not sure to which - about the same time one Ramasami Ayan gave me 300 Rs. in connection with the case of the dismissal of the Taliaries of Chuttram Suttukulam in Tinnevelly Taluq, After the payment of this money the Taliaries were re-instated by Mr. Atkinson - At the same time that I paid this 300 Rs. to Mr. Atkinson, I also gave him 200 Rs I had received from the Karnam of the same village between whom and the Munsiff there was a quarrel. I thus paid 500 Rs to Mr. Atkinson in notes - This was after our return from Nanguneri - The Proceedings are on record - of the 300 Rs. above alluded to 150 Rs. were paid to me in notes & 150 in cash by Ramasami Ayan - I got the cash changed for notes by the attender Akkini. The other 200 Rs were paid to me in notes. I never got money for the Huzur Sheristadar - I don't know if he ever got money for the Collector - The Stanathipathi of the Shevalpatti Zemindar, one Avudainayakam Pillai, came and asked me to get the Zemindars case settled in his favour. I declined as it was a Magisterial case and I was only a Revenue Clerk. He did not offer me any money. In the case of Kalangudiyiruppu village, a Shanar, who wanted to be appointed Moniam-Munsiff of the village, paid money to the Collectors butler - who sent word through Dalayat Vanniappen to me that I should get the orders passed to have the case decided in this mans favour - I prepared the order accordingly and laid it before the Collector who tore it up and wrote it again himself in his own hand. This was his custom - that in all cases in which I took money for him and wrote the necessary order he tore up my draft after re-writing the order himself. The 200 or 300 Rs. given to me by the Karnam of Tenkarai I kept in my house here while I was at Nanguneri -

When the butler told me that Mr. Atkinson had had some one made a Deputy Collector he said that it was a Sub-Division Sheristadar who had got into trouble but that Mr. Atkinson had had helped him and got him promoted.

In the Khantalibpuram case the decision was wrong and opposed to the orders of the Revenue Board - but nevertheless I took 35 Rs and sent it to the butler to see if money would be taken whether cases were decided rightly or wrongly - I used to send a chit to the butler telling him the names of the parties & the village & Taluq they came from - This was on money being paid - I afterwards sent the money by the peon without a chit on the case being decided. The cases decided in Krishnayar's favour were so decided 4 or 5 months after his bribe was given & after he was dead. The 500 Rs I paid to Mr. Atkinson in notes, at his house here, were paid in connection with the Chuttram Puttukulam case - I paid them with my own hand into Mr. Atkinson's hand. Peon Vanniappen was always the go between between the butler & me. The butler used to send for me by peons - I used to go thinking it was my bad time.

When Mr. Lee-Warner took charge of

of the Office he wanted to know why I was acting as English Head Clerk & doing Vernacular Head Clerk's work - He questioned me about my parentage & wanted to know by whose orders it came to pass that so many petitions came direct to the Collector without going through the Divisional Officers - I was frightened and ashamed - and when he asked me if I knew anything about the bribes said to have been taken by Mr. Atkinson I said I would tell the truth. I received 250 Rs in a Summary Revenue appeal from the appellant Appavu Aiyar and sent it to the Collector's butler by Vanniappan - That was the last money I received for the Collector.

Appavoo

The Satir Sheristadar, Narain Rao, was ordered to retire by the Board of Revenue - In filling up his vacancy Subramania Pillai was appointed to succeed him - He gave me 5 notes of 100 Rs each, some months back. After he was appointed I sent the money to the butler by Vanniappan. This was either in the end of April or beginning of May - The notes were for 100 Rs each and were with me for some 3 months before I sent them to the butler.

One Subba Rao, a Gumastah in Ambasamudram Taluq was recommended by Mr. Atkinson for exemption from passing the Middle School Examination - He paid 250 Rs. to me, through one Ambalavana Pillai and his own brother. The brother brought 50 Rs. in cash - Ambalavana Pillai gave me 200 Rs in notes - On the collector's letter recommending exemption being despatched I sent the 250 Rs. to Mr. Atkinson's butler by Vanniappen.

Before the Huzur Sheristadar, Chidambaram Pillai took leave there were some Board's Petitions pending disposal with him - The butler told me the parties interested in them were going to him about them and asked me to get them disposed of - I said I would not interfere but, shortly after, Mr. Atkinson sent an order to the Sheristadar to send him all the petitions and that he would thrash them out with me. I went through the Petitions with Mr. Atkinson.

In

In connection with one of those petitions the party interested, one Sankaranarayana Ayan, paid me 200 Rs. which I sent on to the butler by Vanniappen - I don't know if Sankaranarayana Ayan was the party interested, but he paid me. In connection with another of those Board's Petitions Devanayagam Pillai gave me 200 Rs. in notes on account of his brother-in-law one of the parties interested in the matter to which the Petition related.

I paid the 500 Rs. on behalf of Subramania Pillai & the 250 on behalf of Subba Rao on the same date - that is I sent 750 Rs on one day to the butler for the Collector. This was in the end of April or beginning of May. When I said the last money I received was 250 Rs. from Appavu Ayan I meant it was the last money I received in connection with the disposal of a case by Mr. Atkinson.

In February I applied for 6 months private affairs leave being anxious to get away from Mr. Atkinson, because I was frightened by what Mr. Locke said to me in January when I went to see him. He then said to me that I must take care not to lose my good name. Mr. Atkinson refused me the leave saying I must wait till the permanent Huzur Sheristadar came back.

I remember the Ettiapuram Zemindar paid the Collector a visit. The Collector returned it. This was last year soon after Mr. Atkinson's arrival. About that time the butler said to me that the Collector wants to know why nothing had been sent him by the Zemindar. I spoke to the Zemindar's agent Pandojiyar and told him this. Two or three days after, the butler told me that the Zemindar had sent over 3000 Rs. in cash for the Collector and asked me to get him notes for some of the cash. I sent him my nephew Lakshmana Ayan who got 1000 Rs. in cash which he and Vanniappan took to the Pandojiyar and got 1000 Rs. in notes from him, or a note for 1000 Rs. I don't know which. I refused to get him notes from the Treasury for fear of suspicion attaching to me.

he

When I told the Pandojiyar he took me to the Zemindar who was in his bungalow close to the Collector's house. I then told the Zemindar what the butler told me. He said such a thing was not usual and was considering the matter. I left Pandojiyar and the butler talking in the Collector's compound and came away. I don't remember in what month this occurred but it was before I fell sick in September last.

Suppusami Ayan a connection of the Nilgiris Huzur Sheristadar told me that that Sheristadar had come here last January to see Mr. Atkinson. Nandagiri Venkoba Rao the Sub Division Sheristadar of Madanapalle came to me last April and asked me where Mr. Atkinson was. I told him. He went to see him at Tuticorin – Venkoba Row was on leave at the time and had been on a pilgrimage to Rameswaram – Subbayar who succeeded Subramania Pillai as 1st class Revenue Inspector paid me nothing, but one Kandasami Pillai who succeeded Subbayar paid 100 Rs for the Collector & 25 for the butler to me in cash – I sent it over in cash by Vanniappan to the butler at the same time that I sent the 750 Rs. paid in notes & cash in the end of April or beginning of May.

The whole of what I have stated above is true – I am ready to depose to it.

(The deponent was here solemnly affirmed)

Q. The statement just made by you before me has been read over to you in English – Do you understand it and is it all true?

A- I do understand it – It is all true.

Q. Is it correctly recorded as you stated it?

A- It is.

(Re-examined)

When I sent money to the Collector or his butler by Vanniappan I did not send the money always in notes, nor did I always put the notes into gummed covers – Sometimes I sent cash sometimes notes & sometimes both. He (Vanniappan) always knew the amount of money I gave him. About a month ago, the Karnam of Pulangulam, who has an appeal before the Collector, came to me and offered me 250 Rs. and asked me to give the money in person to the Collector; I referred him to the butler because the amount was so small & because I would not give it in person to the Collector - afterwards he spoke to Vanniappan who came and told me I might receive it. I accordingly received it but on your honor's (Mr. Garstin's) arrival here to make an inquiry I gave it back to the Karnam - That case is posted for hearing to-day.

There is also another case posted for hearing to-day in which Rs 300 was paid to me but which I returned. The money was paid to me for the Collector. There were other cases in which I received money and paid it to the Collector, but I can't remember them all.

Deposition on solemn affirmation of V. Akkinimuthu Pillai - attender in the Collector's office - Tinnevelly.

I have twice got notes from the Huzur Treasury in exchange for cash for Kylasaparam Subba Rao, the Head Vernacular Clerk. once about 2 days before the circuit Kacheri went to Nangunori in January last and once about 20 days before - On the first occasion I got 150 Rs. and on the last I think 300 Rs but I am not sure - I see my name written down in the note-register at the Treasury. (Note - The note-register shows 3 notes of 100 Rs each as issued to the witness for cash on January 30th, 1884. The Nos. of the notes are $\frac{B}{73}$ 70421 - $\frac{B}{78}$ 85114 - $\frac{B}{79}$ 17700). I gave the notes I got from the Treasury on both occasions to Subba Rao.

I was on circuit with the Collector at Nanguneri on February 1st last. I was going to Kacheri with the Head Vernacular Clerk Kylasapuram Subba Row when he met a Sudra, whose name I don't know, & Sundram Aiyar who was formerly a Gumastah under Mr Thomas. Subba Rao said to me that the Sudra would give me 100 Rs. and I was to take it to the Sub-Registrar & get it changed for notes. I took the money which Sundram Aiyar gave me and gave it to the Sub-Registrar and asked him to get it changed for notes. He sent a peon to the Taluq treasury who brought back 2 notes which I received and gave to Subba Rao. The next day I brought Subba Rao his box as he was going to Office. He opened it and took out of it 2 notes and took them over to the Bungalow. The Collector was at the Bungalow - I don't know that the notes that Subba Rao took out of the box were those I gave him the day before - but I saw him put the notes I gave him the day before into that box. Subba Rao and I were living at the Sub-Registrar's house.

Deposition of Vanniappa Pillai a peon on the Collector's Establishment - Tinnevelly

I have often taken papers from Subba Row to the Collector Mr. Atkinson. I have never taken purses or notes to him. The papers were always either folded or in covers. The covers were always closed - There may have been notes in the covers - I don't know what was in them. Mr. Atkinson often gave me letters for Subba Rao which I used to give him - I never carried verbal messages from Mr. Atkinson's butler to Subba Rao - I have never carried money from Subba Rao to the butler. I remember the Ettiapuram Zemindar coming to see Mr. Atkinson shortly after his arrival in this District. The Collector Mr. Atkinson, returned the Zemindar's visit at the bungalow, where the Zemindar was staying, adjoining his own compound. I went over to see Pandojiyar, the agent of the Zemindar, 2 or 3 days after Mr. Atkinson had returned the Zemindar's visit - I went with Lakshmana Ayar and carried 2 bags of rupees - I don't know how many rupees there were - we went to get the rupees changed for notes - More than one note was given to me. I don't know the value of the notes given to me. I gave them to Mr. Atkinson's butler - The rupees were put into Lakshmana Ayar's bandy by me when we went to Pandojiyar's. The notes were folded up & given to me - They were not in a cover. I cannot read English - I brought the money out of ~~the~~ Mr. Atkinson's house - The butler gave it to me - It was Subba Rao who told me the money was required to be changed for notes.

(Questioned by Subba Rao)

I did carry a message to Subba Rao from the butler shortly after Mr. Atkinson's arrival here to go and meet the butler near the river side - I did not call Vil Viraragavapuram Krishnayan at the request of the butler. I did not tell Subba Rao that the butler said Mr. Atkinson wanted 1000 Rs. The butler counted counted the notes I got from Pandojiyar and said they were all ~~proper~~ right - I never spoke to parties about giving money - I don't know if they spoke to the butler.

About 20 days ago I brought and gave 250 Rs. to Subba Rao for the Collector in order to prevent a decision in favor of my opponents, who, I was informed by Subba Rao, had given something. I was obliged to give it. Peon Vamiappan told me that Subba Row was displeased because I had asked him to give the money in person to the Collector. Cross-examination of K. Subba Rao by Mr Atkinson

I did not go to Mr Lockes' house on Monday night last the 26th May. Nor was I refused admittance. I know Munisami chetty. I went to his house on May 27th and talked to him. I don't remember the date. I went alone. Munisami chetti and I did not go anywhere together. I alone went to the house of Chidambaram Pillai. I and Munisami chetti did not go to Mr Lockes' that night. He and I never went to Mr Lockes' house together all last week. I was not advised by Mr Locke to make any statement to Mr Lee-Warner. I did not see Mr Locke till Saturday after I had made my statement. Mr Locke did not promise me if I gave the necessary information that he would not only get me off Scot-free but get me promoted afterwards. From Monday 26th to Saturday 31st I did not go to Mr Locke's house at all. I went there on Saturday morning. Devanayagam chetti was at Munisami chetti's house when I went there. I merely went to pay the chetti a visit as he is a friend of mine, and congratulated him on having left the Service and told him I was ashamed to show my face by reason of the inquiry that was going on.
