The Secretary to the Government of India,

Home Department.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. --- Deputy Secretary Lusson's letter No. 209 dated 18th March last enquiring the circumstances in which Mr. F. C. Parsons, a member of the Indian Civil Service on the Madras establishment drew the salary of Rs. 1033 a month for the period - 8th April to 20th July 1897 - during which he was employed as an Assistant Collector at Nasik and Sind, whilst the pay of a first grade Assistant Collector in Bombay is Rs. 900 a month only; and in reply to submit the following observations.

2. Mr. Parsons was one of the four Civilians on the --- Madras establishment whose services were temporarily placed at the disposal of this Government ^(in March 1897) by the Government of --- India on the express condition that the officers transferred should not lose by their transfer. On his transfer to this Presidency Mr. Parsons was appointed Assistant Collector in the Nasik District. He was subsequently placed under the orders of the Commissioner in Sind. In order to carry out the orders of the Government of India regarding the payment of the officers transferred from the Madras Presidency for employment here, His Excellency the Governor in Council --- decided that they should hold temporary appointments and --- that it was not necessary to fix their relative positions on the graded lists. Under the authority vested in Local -- Governments by article 95(b) of the Civil Service Regulations special temporary appointments were accordingly --- created for these officers and Mr. Parsons was appointed to hold one of them with a salary of Rs. 1033 per mensem.

3. In his communication dated 25th October 1897 received with the letter from the Government of Madras No. 4 dated 4th January 1898, a copy of which is enclosed, Mr. Parsons represents that the amount allowed to him by the Government of Bombay makes up the bare salary which he would have received had he remained in the regular line in Madras, and he accordingly requests that in addition to the salary --- allowed to him his claim to certain other allowances may be considered. In view of the opinion expressed by the Government of India in their telegram dated 1st March 1897 viz.
that officers temporarily transferred from the Madras Presidency should not lose by their transfer His Excellency the Governor in Council thinks that Mr. Parsons is clearly --- entitled to receive whilst employed in this Presidency --- salary at Rs. 1218-14-3 per mensem. If however as has been ruled by the Government of India in their letter No. 76 --- dated 9th February 1898 a temporary appointment cannot be created with a special rate of pay for the performance of the duties of an already sanctioned permanent appointment
the only course open to this Government would be to treat Mr. Parsons in accordance with his seniority in the service as an acting 1st Assistant Collector and to allow him --- salary accordingly at Rs. 900 per mensem plus permanent --- travelling allowance and tentage and also the Sind allowance for the period he served in Sind. If this course is adopted Mr. Parsons whilst employed under this Government would be entitled to receive pay and allowances at the rates shown below :-

As 1st Assistant Collector, Nasik,

Pay	Rs. 900
Travelling allowance	Rs. 125
Tentage	Rs. 25
	Rs. 1050.

As 1st Assistant Collector in Sind,

Pay	Rs. 900
Travelling allowance	Rs. 150
Tentage	Rs. 25
Sind allowance	Rs. 100
	Rs. 1175.

Under this arrangement Mr. Parsons will receive considerably less pay than he did in Madras and the difference will have to be made up to him by the grant of a personal allowance. It will also in the ordinary course be necessary to recover acting allowance at Rs. 200 per mensem from the most junior 2nd Assistant who acted as 1st Assistant with acting allowance during the period of Mr. Parson's service under this Government and acting allowance Rs. 200 per --- mensem plus difference of permanent travelling allowance at Rs. 25 and tentage at Rs. 13-14-3 from the most junior --- Assistant who acted as 2nd Assistant with acting allowance.
His Excellency the Governor in Council would recommend that the necessary personal allowance to Mr. Parsons be sanctioned and that to avoid hardship recoveries from Assistant Collectors should be foregone.

Simla, the 19 August 1898.

SIR,

WITH reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 3116, dated the 10th May last, I am directed to say that the question of the salary which should be granted to Mr. F. C. Parsons, I. C. S. (Madras establishment), for the period during which he was employed in the Bombay Presidency has been referred to Her Majesty's Secretary of State; and that the Accountant-General, Madras, will be directed to pass to Mr. Parsons the travelling allowance which he would have received had he been an officer on the Bombay establishment of the same standing. The Government of India understand that this allowance is Rs. 125 a month for the period while he was employed in the Bombay Presidency proper and Rs. 150 a month for the period while he was employed in Sind. Its grant will be subject to the condition that Mr. Parsons refunds travelling allowance, if any, drawn by him under the ordinary rules, otherwise than on transfer.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. LUSON,

Deputy Secy. to the Govt. of India.
