The Chief Secretary to Government
Madras;

Sir, I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of yours
No 954 of 23rd July, which, owing to absence from this, I have not been able to reply to sooner.

The nine sheets of drawings referred to by Mr Rea have already been despatched to him in registered parcel.
I have also informed Mr Rea that there are at the India Office some 6 or 7 photographic negatives from Trimal Nayak's palace at Madura, and as the drawings alone do not adequately represent this, or in fact almost any building, it seems very desirable that Mr Rea's Report should be illustrated by photographs; and if he has no others for the Madura palace, if Government will sanction the slight expense of having so many of the India Office negatives as may be desirable - reproduced in collotype by Mr Griggs, I would willingly superwise the work, selecting the negatives and checking the proofs.

If Mr Rea has negatives for Madura palace, &
the other buildings in his report they could be readily reproduced at the Survey Office, Calcutta.

I have the honour to be

Sir your most obedient servt.

J. S. Burgess.
