Referred to the Advocate-Genl. for favour of opinion. The first question which arises is whether the intention to "settle" in India is a condition precedent to the grant of a certificate of naturalisation under Act XXI of 1852. Sec.2 of that Act sets forth the particulars which an applicant for naturalisation must state, but sec.4 appears to permit the grant of a certificate in any case in which the Govt. thinks fit to grant one, and to impose no restrictions as regards "settlement". If settlement, or intention to settle, is necessary before a certificate can be granted the question arises whether residence in India as a Govt. servant can be considered as settlement for the purpose of the Act. It is to be remarked that the English Statute specially provides for the naturalisation of ~~papers~~ persons who become servants of the Crown. The Advocate-General is requested to submit his opinion at a very early date.

1. I am of opinion that it is competent Local Government to issue a certificate of naturalization to Frederick Julius Theodore Hultzsch on the statements made by him in his Memorial, and verified by his affidavit dated August 16th 1898.
2. The words of Section 2 of Act XXX of 1852-"that he is settled in the said territories, or is residing in the same with intent to settle therein"- may, I think, be read disjunctively, and in my view a person who resides in India as a Government servant may be considered as "settled" in India for the purposes of Section 2 of the Act. I think the words "is settled" in Section 2 of the Indian Act may fairly be construed as having the same significance as the words "intends ... to reside" in Section 7 of the English Act of 1870 (33 Victoria C.14). The Certificate which is set out in the report of the case of Re Boucard, 41 Ch. D. 310, recites the Memorial upon which the Certificate was granted in that case, and may usefully be referred to.
3. It is clear that Mr. Hultzsch, as a servant of the Crown, would be entitled to a Certificate of naturalization under the English Act. In the case of a servant of the Crown applying for a certificate of naturalization, all that the English Act requires is that he should adduce such evidence of his intention to serve as the Secretary of State may require. See Section 7, para 2. But a certificate under the English Act would be of no use to Mr. Hultzsch since it would only confer on him the rights and privileges of a natural born British subject in the United Kingdom. See Section 7, para 3.
4. I do not think that Section 4 of the Indian Act gives the Local Government a general discretion to issue a certificate in any case which they may think fit to do so. Section 4 must be read with Sects 2 and 3, and the discretion conferred by Section 4 can only be exercised where the requirements of Sections 2 and 3 have been complied with. In the present case I am of opinion that these requirements have been complied with.

SUBJECT.

Naturalization of
Dr. Hallysch.

FOR ORDERS.

This is Dr. Hallysch's first request.
17. 4. 5.

I would point out that settlement is not a condition precedent to the grant of a certificate. It seems to me that the Act is for the Certificate irrespective of the Statement set out in Section 2. which only prescribes the particulars which an application is to contain.
If the above is not the correct view it seems very strange that the Judicial Act should not like the English refer to the case of removal of the Crown. I think Dr. H. has been given a certificate of naturalization.

In the papers below Dr.
Hallysch asks for a certificate of naturalization.
The only point in connection with his application which needs notice is the question whether he is settled in India. The word "settle" is used in Sec.
2 of Act ~~XXX~~ of 1852 is not defined, but it is submitted that Dr. Hallysch's position is a permanent Gov. servant amounts to "settlement".
The English Statute (Naturalization Act 1870) permits an alien who has resided in the United Kingdom for five years, & who intends to "reside" there (not to "settle"), or to enter the service of the Crown, to be naturalized as a British subject. Under the circumstances it is submitted that the certificate may be granted.

In the regard to the certificate, for which he asks, stating that his children are natural born British subjects, it appears from the correspondence in G.O.

174 Public that there was some difference of opinion as to the effect of naturalization on the children of her father. The draft submitted below proposes to say that Dr. Hall's children

carries with it that of his minor his children. That however is not the point. The children being already

British subjects, (vide opinion of the Advocate General in Jender's case) need no naturalization.

Perhaps as Dr. Hall's is a Govt. servant the same concensus as was

I think attachment or residence with the declared intent to settle is a condition necessarily precedent to the grant of certificate of naturalization. Now, in his first affidavit, Dr. H. distinctly stated that he was not residing in India with intent to settle there. The certificate should not be granted in my opinion he regards. This is a legal question - ask the Adv.
Genl.

This is Dr. Hall's 3rd request:
