Sir,

I am directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 9th ultimo, in which you request that the leave granted to you in October may be extended and that you may be permitted at the expiration of the full period of six months to resume your seat for one day to enable you to draw the absentee allowance.

In reply I am to say that inasmuch as your resignation of your seat in the Council of the Governor of Port St. George was accepted with effect from the 7th ultimo, and as Mr. Butchins has been appointed to the vacant seat, it is not in Viscount Cross's power to comply with your request.

I am, however, to inform you that having regard to all the circumstances of the

the case, the Secretary of State in Council will authorize a special grant to you of a sum equal to the salary which would have been payable to you up to December 7th 1886 if you had been legally able to draw it.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Dear Mr. Rees.

A letter, of which
enclosed is a copy,
was sent by the I.O
to Mr. Sullivan yesterday, to his town address,
but as there is a
rumour that Mr.
Sullivan has left for

India Mr. Godley
thinks that Mr.
Bourke should be made aware of this reply
which has been sent to Mr. Sullivan in case the latter
turns up at Madras.
Love & Co is in the Country - we have been disturbed

by reports that we were to lose him in this crisis, but our apprehensions
have been calmed

now.

Yours truly

My dear Stoke

Will you kindly get the order regarding the grant referred to in the enclosed letter passed as soon as possible as the balance at my bankers is rather low. Being a special grant I presume it is free of income tax - and

Dear Stokes

If Govt direct me to make the payment to Mr Sullivan
"in anticipation of the receipt of "the sanction of the Sec of State "which has already been accorded or in some similar terms I will make the payment.

I do not understand
on what grounds exemption from income tax is claimed

For orders: —
