No. 3257
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Fort William, the 3rd February 1898.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF Madras.

1 FEB 93

SIR,

It has been brought to the notice of the Government of India that the Native Side-de-camp on the Staff of His Excellency the Governor of Madras has hitherto been allowed to draw the full scale of a Subadar, at Rs. 14-0-0 a month, in addition to his pay of rank and a staff salary of Rs. 150/- a month.

2. It will be seen from the orders quoted in the margin, on the margin, that when this rule of staff salary was sanctioned, in 1873, the object in view was to place the Native Side-de-camp in Madras on an exactly similar footing as regards emoluments, to that held by the Native Officers filling the same position in the Royal and Bombay Presidencies, and the scale previously allowed in Madras was not admissible in

Bombay, should therefore have merged in the higher rank of Staff pay then authorized.

Under these circumstances the Government of India have under their consideration the question of withdrawing the latter referred to, with effect from the date on which the present incumbent of the appointment of Major Sir John Campbell to the Governor's office; but before passing any order to this effect, they would be glad to be furnished with His Excellency's views on the subject.

I am, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. G. Ramsden

For y. Secy. to the Govt of India.
