With his endorsement No.A/O 19956
d/15th December 1897, the Deputy Adjutant General forwarded, with reference to paras
87 and 528, Army Regulations, India, Vol:
IX, (Provisional Issue), ~~the~~ recommendation of the G.O.C. that Mr. Montague Brown, Asst. Engineer, P.W.D., should be granted a commission as Second Lieutenant for the Cadet Company attached to the East Coast Rifle Volunteers. The formation of this Cadet ^{company} at Valtair was sanctioned by the local Govt. in G.O.No.1326 Public, d/17th December 1896.

As will be seen from page 644 of the Army List for January 1898, the East Coast Rifle Volunteers has its full complement complement of 7 Second Lieutenants. The proposed appointment of Mr. Brown as Second Lieutenant is for the Cadet Company referred to above. It is not quite clear whether this fact will permit of an eighth Second Lieutenant for the corps

From the establishment details for the Madras Volunteer Guards and the Nilgiri Volunteer Rifles, it would appear that the number of Lieutenants there mentioned includes those for the Cadet Companies.

The paras in A.R.I., Vol: IX, regarding 'Cadets' are Nos. 4, 82, 87, 284 and 349. None of these helps to clear the matter.

In G.O.R. No. 28 Public, d/11th January 1898, the D.A.G. was asked to report whether there was room for the proposed officer in the East Coast Rifle Volunteers, as from the Army List it appeared that the Corps was already in possession of its full complement of 7 Second Lieutenants. In reply he states

" 641 " "

C. N. 270 D

states that the proposed appointment is consequent on the formation of the Cadet Company at Valtair.

Orders are solicited as to whether any further reference is necessary or whether the recommendation may be sent up to the Govt. of India with the usual routine letter.

4/2/98*

As there seems a doubt as to the D.A.G. explicitly whether the addition of this Cadet Corps company adds one to the full complement of 7 2nd Lieutenants.

M. 10.2.98

It is not clear whether the 7 companies of the E.C.V. establishment include the Cadet Comp. recently sanctioned. The fact that it was sanctioned was communicated to the D.A.G. (by B.). In the cases of the Madras Vol. Guards & the Nilgiri Vol. Rifles the existence of Cadet Corps is explicitly noted. In any case, however, it is thought that as the no. of 2nd Lieuts. is fixed at 7 and there is at present no vacancy, the appointment of Mr. Brown cannot be sanctioned. When the vacancy in the rank of Lieut. is filled up, the present proposed appt. may be reconsidered.
