I have the honour to submit herewith a statement of lands possessed, acquired or relinquished by me up to the 31st December 1897.

In accordance with your instructions I did ^{my} utmost to dispose of these houses during the year but without success. They were advertised widely and put into the hands of various agents in Bangalore. I made an attempt to sell the two largest by auction but owing to the very ^{low} offers made-being little more than half of what I paid-I was obliged to buy them in. This attempt to sell cost me, in advertisements, plans, commission to the auctioneer and sundry alterations made on the occasion, over Rs. 2000. I am myself most anxious to sell these houses and will do so if an opportunity should offer.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter, No 2421 dated 3th March 1897, on which orders are still awaited, I have the honour to submit the enclosed copy of a letter from Mr. Marsden, Inspector of schools, Central Circle, No 101-M dated 29th January 1898 together with a bill amounting to Rs. 1056-12-0, being the commission, &c, paid to his agent in Bangalore and to recommend in the circumstances that Mr. Marsden be permitted to take his own time in disposing of his houses in Bangalore.

2. With reference to the reprimand which Government passed on Mr. Marsden in paragraph 5 of its order, No 1133 Public dated 21st October 1896, I beg to state that I am informed by that officer that the wording of article 3 Part I of the Rules relating to the Personal Conduct of Government Servants as it originally stood was far from clear and that he was supported in the view he took in regard to the supposed inapplicability of the prohibition contained in Article 2 of the Manual to houses or buildings intended for residence, by the letter of the First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore, No 3997 dated 5th November 1896 (copy enclosed) to whom he appears to have furnished a similar return of his landed property. It seems therefore evident that Mr. Marsden acted in good faith in the purchase of the houses in Bangalore and did not wilfully violate the rules on the subject.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant
D. Duncan
Director of Public Instruction.
