FROM

No. 30/

J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E.,
Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Chief Secy to the Govt of India.

Home Department.
Medical.

Calcutta, the 16th March 1898.

SIR,

I AM directed to refer to the circular in this Department, No. 934—43, dated the 24th August 1897, stating that in consequence of the severe strain on the medical services to provide officers for military in addition to plague and famine duties, necessitating the recall of officers from leave in England, the Governor General in Council had decided that no leave of any kind except on medical certificate might be granted without previous reference to the Government of India in each case.

2. The Government of India are anxious to remove the orders restricting the grant of leave to medical officers as speedily as, and to the greatest extent that, circumstances will permit. The unfortunate continuance of plague and the absence of many medical officers in the North-Western frontier do not admit of more than a partial relaxation of the orders being made at the present time, and since it may become necessary to call for more medical officers for military duty, the Government of India find it impossible to relax the present restrictions even to the extent of permitting Local Governments and Administrations to grant leave provided that arrangements can be made within the Province for the conduct of the duties of those to whom leave is granted. They are, however, prepared to give consideration to applications for leave made by medical officers who can be spared by Local Governments and Administrations. I am therefore to request that such applications may be submitted to the Government of India with ~~the recommendation of the Governor in Council~~ in order that His Excellency in Council, after considering the applications made by officers in the different provinces, may decide which officers may be permitted to depart on leave.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. Hewett

Secretary to the Government of India.
