6. " S. M. Ry Vol Rifles

Revision of the figures for three other Corps, viz,

- i The Madras Vol Guards
- ii The Malabar Vol Rifles
- iii The South Andaman Vol Rifles awaits a reply to memo ²⁸¹² 21.12.97

As regards the Bellary Vol Rifles

Go. 1114 Pat-dy 24.8.97 (N) asked for a report as to the intentions of those volunteers "who, either because they were on leave, or for other reasons, had not signified their willingness" &c.

The list with go. ^{R 1242 Sub} 26.11.96

(Flagged R) contains 43 names 40 Yes 1 No (Smythe) and 2 out of the Station.

Of these last two, one, Capt. Strachan has since been placed on the Supernumerary List the names in the subsequent (subsidiary) list presumably give details of those who ~~have since~~ joined subsequently, as these names don't occur in the original list. It is doubtful whether Longth in the original list with "No" opposite his name is the same as L. Longth in the subsidiary list with "Yes" (opposite his name)

Only those are concerned who joined prior to the 13th March 1896 vide India's letter to G.O. 343^{Sub} 24.3.97 & its letter to G.O. 558^{Sub} 23.5.96

It is possible therefore that the present subsidiary list is superfluous while nothing is said about C. Lawrence shown in the original list as out of the station.

The following drafts & attachments submitted for approval (the original list at K. was received on the 4th instant or so.)

C.O. 1498
6/1/98

Pub. C 3647

Ordn. No. 6107/10-1-98

It is observed that the names in the supplementary list of the Bellary Vol Rifles forwarded with the O.A.S. Encl No 4/127. 15375 dy 29.9.97 don't, with perhaps one possible exception (L. Longth), occur in the original list received with his O.A.S. Encl No 4/17. 8.96.
Presumably $\therefore$ the volunteers named in the supplementary list joined subsequently. If so it should be reported at a very early date whether they were enrolled before the 13th March 1896 vide G.O. 343^{Sub} 24.3.97 and G.O. 558^{Sub} 23.5.96 It is not stated whether

Vol Lawrence shown in the original list as out of the station has yet returned

Sir,

With reference to your memo. no 2812 of the 21st ultimo, I have the honor, by direction of the Lieutenant General commanding the Forces to state that the General Officers commanding Madras and Southern Districts, have been requested to expedite the despatch of supplementary statements containing the declarations of members of the Madras Volunteer Guards and Malabar Volunteer Rifles, respectively.

2. A Supplementary Statement was not called for from the South Andaman Volunteer Rifles, as that Corps is under the Chief Commissioner of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Superintendent of Port Blair, vide this office letter no A/BT. 7015 dated 4th May 1894.

3. It will also be observed from Government of India letter no 1239 B dated 7th May 1896 that the Chief Commissioner of the Andamans was

Asst Secy

addressed separately as regards the Volunteer Corps under him.

4- Under the above circumstances I am to enquire whether a supplementary Statement is still required from the South Andaman Volunteer Rifles, as if so, the Chief Commissioner of the Andamans will be asked to furnish it.

I have the honor to be, -
Sir, -
Your obedient servant,
C. Simpson
Brigadier General,
Deputy Adjutant General.

CHIEF SECRETARY
-S JAN. 1898
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Please see paras 2 and 3 of the current.

On page 643 of the Army List for October of the South Andaman Volunteer Rifles is still shown as a volunteer Corps in the Madras Command notwithstanding the fact that the Corps is under the Chief Com. of the Andaman & Nicobar Is vide Extract from India's letter (before m.f.s. 965 Pub 14.7.97) referred to by the D.A.G.

The list forwarded with the D.A.G.'s letter of 11 was forwarded with letter 966 Pub d/19.7.97 and therefore it may be concluded that the further figures called for in letter 2181 B d/13.8.97 despatched of 1114 Pub d/24.8.97 are required for relate to this Corps as well, as India has said nothing to the contrary.

CURRENT No. 257

The allusion in para 3 of the current to India's letter No 1239 B d/7. 5. 96 at R w/o. ^{158 Pub} 23.5.96 is not clear. It is not stated in that letter that the Chief Commissioner of the Andaman's was addressed separately as regards the 1st Corps under him. It may be that there was an entry to that effect in the Enclosure to the letter at R. But this has not been preserved paragraph 9 of Act of 1896, the Governor General in Council is empowered to call out volunteers for service in cases of emergency (anywhere within the Collectorate but not outside it). It is, however, provided by paragraph 9 of Act X of 1896 that the revised sections 16 and 27 above referred to will not apply to any volunteer who was enrolled before that Act (X of 1896) commenced to have effect, that is, before the 13th of March 1896, unless he consents in writing to be bound by them. I am now directed to request that, under the orders of The Governor in Council, you will obtain, through The Lieutenant General Commanding, statements showing whether the volunteers who were enrolled before the 13th of March 1896 are willing, or unwilling, to come under the provisions of Act X of 1896
