Read also the following letter from the collector of Ganjam, Dis. No 4052 of 1898 dated 1st February 1898:-

With reference to Board's Proceeding No 473 Mis. dated 24th January 1898 inquiring whether Mr. G. D. Patridge C.S., late Acting Principal Assistant Collector, Ganjam, is entitled to the special concession granted to officers on Famine duty under Government of India Resolution, communicated with Board's Proceedings, (Land Revenue) No 434 dated 8th December 1897,

The honor to state that Mr. Partridge joined as Principal Assistant Collector on 10th February 1897, at a time when test works had already been tried, and Circle Inspectors had been appointed for the Zerkali Taluk of the Sub-Division and that from the time of his assuming charge to 12th August 1897, when he handed over charge to Mr. Parsons, he had to bear a special strain of work in connection with the famine. I may note that though Mr. Partridge's health broke down at the end of June, and he was unable to get about on active duty for some five weeks after that date, yet he continued to direct operations in the Sub-Division and in spite of his indisposition to attend to the current and Famine duties of his office.

2. I consider that Mr. Partridge is entitled to one month's special privilege leave, or to full pay for the first two months of furlough, under the Government of India Resolution under under reference.

Resolution

Submitted to Government for orders.

2. Mr. Partridge appears entitled to the concession.
