Q

The original estimate for Rs. 2650 for the Polavaram dispensary was sanctioned in G.O.No.613 Public, dated 8-8-93. A further allotment of Rs.950 was ~~assessed~~ ^{issued} for in the Surgeon-Generals letter disposed of in G.O.No.278, Public, dated 16-3-97. It is not known what the four defects were which the Hospital Assistant reported, as the paper was apparently returned to the Surgeon-General, but explanation for the increased requirement of Rs.950 is detailed in the comparative statement of differences.

2. G.O.No.278, dated 16-3-97, which disposes of the further request for Rs.950, sanctioned ⁽⁴⁾ an extra window for distribution of medicine, and, ⁽⁶⁾ ~~and~~ a door between the office and compounding room. A verandah and separate dressing room for women were disallowed. The present estimate is for Rs.2920, being an increase of Rs.270 on the original estimate. The Superintending Engineer has remarked on the revised plan that one window is enough if the existing window is lowered. The new window is estimated to cost Rs. 30, and removing and refining existing window Rs. 15. The Surgeon-General has not remarked on this point. He still considers the building unsatisfactory for the purpose of a dispensary. (Please see notes stitched with G.Os 278 & 526 of 1897) Submitted that the Surgeon-General should be directed to report whether he wants the extra window or ~~that~~ considers lowering the existing window will suffice.

~~If considered necessary, he may at the same time be directed to return to Messrs. Asst's letter -~~

As no new reasons for this opinion are however given, the revised estimate may therefore, be submitted, be sanctioned.
