SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Financial DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that in September last the Inspector-General of Prisons inquired if there was any reason for making no provision in the budget estimate (Jail-Medical) for 1898-99 for the Presidency allowance of Rs: 10 in addition to the local allowance of Rs: 10 sanctioned by G.O. No. 1538, Judicial, dated the 23rd August 1892 for each of the hospital assistants attached to the Penitentiary and the Civil Jail, Madras. He was informed that the men were only entitled to the local allowance of Rs: 10 in accordance with Appendix B to G.O. No. 158, Financial, dated the 11th March 1896.

2. He then consulted the Accountant General who informed him that these subordinates were entitled to both the Presidency and local allowances.

... as 1st September 1890 and 23rd August 1892, respectively.

3. The Inspector-General of Prisons having forwarded for my remarks a copy of that officer's reply, I invited the attention of the Accountant-General to G.O. No. 158, D Financial, dated the 11th March 1896 which, I considered, superseded all the previous orders on the subject, but he differs from this view and suggests a reference to Government for a correct interpretation of the orders which I now have the honor to solicit.

4. If the men attached to the Jail Department are entitled to both allowances it is only fair and reasonable that the hospital assistant attached to the Lunatic Asylum, Madras, should also be granted the Presidency allowance in addition to the Lunatic Asylum allowance of Rs 15. The Accountant-General says that under G.O. No. 328, Public, dated the 2nd May 1890 the latter can only draw the asylum allowance but the G.O. is only applicable to the Apothecary and not to the hospital assistant class and I am strongly of opinion that if Jail hospital assistants are allowed to draw double allowances, the asylum hospital assistant assistant whose duties are not less onerous should also be granted the same concession.

2. Under Government order No 1538 Judicial of 23 August 1892, the Hospital Assistants are entitled to an allowance of Rs 10 a month to compensate them for being debarred from private practice as they are attached to a jail. In Government order No 8654 Public dated 20 September 1890 a local allowance of Rs 10 a month was granted to all Civil Hospital Assistants permanently employed in Presidency Hospitals. This allowance was given on account of the expensiveness of living in the Presidency Town and does not appear to have any connection with the allowance sanctioned under the Government order mentioned above and included in appendix B of Government order

No 158 Fint of 11 March 1896.

3. I may observe that the Hospital Assistant attached to the civil jail do not draw the compensation for loss of private practice as they are attached to neither a District nor a central jail as laid down in the Government order sanctioning the allowance.

4. With reference to paragraph 4 of the surgeon General's letter, it is pointed out that, since Government refused the grant of the Higher Local Allowance to the civil Apothecary attached to the Lunatic Asylum Madras, the grant of the lower one to the Hospital Assistant attached to that Asylum appears to require the sanction of Govt:- vide

In G.O No. 654 Pub. d/20 Sep '90 the Govt. sanctioned a local allowance of Rs 10 per mensem to all Civil Hospital Assistants permanently employed in the Presidency Hospitals, on account of the expensiveness of living in Madras. This allowance is shown in App. B to G.O No. 158 Fint. d/11 March 1896. By G.O No. 1538 Judl. d/23 Aug: '92, medical subordinates attached to Central and District jails are prohibited from engaging in ~~engaging~~ private practice, but they are granted an allowance of Rs 10 p.m as compensation for the loss entailed by the prohibition. This allowance also is entered in App. B to G.O No. 158 Fint. d/and their greater responsibilities as compared with the duties at a mufassal station.

of 11 March 1896. The Surgeon-Genl. solicits a correct interpretation of the foregoing orders & enquires whether the hospital assistants attached to the Penitentiary & the Civil jail, Madras, are entitled to both allowances. The Acctt.
Genl. is of opinion that the allowance sanctioned in consequence of the ^{extra} cost of living in Madras has no connection with that given for loss of private practice.

The Acctt. Genl's view ^{may} ~~might~~ ~~appear to be correct~~ ~~if the circumstances be accepted~~

The Acctt. Genl, however, observes that the hospital assistants attached to the Civil jail do not draw the compensation for loss of practice, as they are attached to neither a district, nor a Central jail as laid down in G.O No. 1538 Judl. of 23 Aug. '92. It is submitted that if the Penitentiary is to be regarded as a Central jail there can be no objection to the Civil jail being treated as

The allowance was also granted in view of the fact that duty in a Lunatic Asylum "has many risks and but few attractions" [para of G.O. Sd's Letter in G.O. No 1928/9 Judl of 27.10.84] E as forming part of the Penitentiary for the purpose of ~~drawing~~ the compensation allowance. The Surgeon. General suggests that in the event of the hospital assistants being attached to the Penitentiary & the Civil jail being declared eligible for both the allowances, the hospital assistant attached to the Lunatic Asylum, who is now paid a special allowance of Rs 15 p.m under G.O No. 129 Judl. of 16 January 1885 as compensation for the loss of private practice should also be given an allowance of Rs 10 p.m in consequence of the expensiveness of living in Madras. The Acctt. Genl. invites attention to G.O No. 328 Publ. of 2 May 1890 in which the Govt declined to grant a similar allowance to the Aspotheary attached to the Asylum and observes that the sanction of Govt. is necessary for the grant of the ~~latter~~ allowance to duty in the Asylum, the officer having been omitted ~~to be included in the list~~ of Hospital Assistants forwarded with the Surgeon. Genl's letter received in G.O No: 654 Pub. dt 20 Sep.

90.

Instead of a double allowance it might be as well to grant a consolidated allowance to cover both the loss of practice and the extra expenses entailed by residence in Madras. This might be fixed at Rs 15 in the case of the Hospital Asst.
the Civil Jail and at Rs 20 for the Hospital Asst. attached to the Lunatic Asylum.

The local allowance was intended to compensate Hospital Assistants for (1) the loss of charge allowance which they would as a rule be drawing in the hospital, and (2) the extra cost of living in Madras. Seeing that a Hospital Assistant in the hospital draws as a rule Rs 10 as charge allowance he really loses pay when serving in Madras. It is submitted therefore that the consolidated allowance of Rs 15 proposed above is not sufficient to cover the loss of charge allowance & the extra cost of living as well as the compensation for loss of private practice. The allowance of Rs 10 for the latter purpose is given to all Hospital Assistants in jails & there appears to be no reason why the Medical Subordinate at the Penitentiary should get less for the loss of private practice than men in a similar position up country.

It is submitted therefore that the Hospital Assts at the Penitentiary & the Civil Jail should not be formally prohibited from practising, & should be permitted to draw

Rs 10 is compensation as well as the usual local allowance of Rs 10. Whether it is called a consolidated allowance or not does not much matter.

The "Asylum allowance" of Rs 15 includes compensation for the loss of private practice as well as special remuneration on account of the unpleasant nature of the work. It does not include compensation for the cost of living or board.
The same allowance is given at Vizagapatnam & Calcutta.
If an ^{local} allowance is to be given it is submitted that an extra five rupees will suffice - making Rs 20 in all.
