Dear Mr. Arundel 3/5/98

I think I ought to write you some explanation of the telegrams I sent you on the 24th and 5th day in reply to your official telegrams 193 and 200 of the 23rd and 26th.

In my first telegram I said I did not care to take the Permanent General-ship of Bengal now, but would willingly go to Madras, and in the last on being asked to state whether I definitely declined the offer of the Permanent Generalship, I said I did.
