SIR,

With reference to your memorandum No. 1462 Public Dept. dated the 18th of February 1898 requesting me to report upon the statement made by Mr. H. Moberly that he is now drawing less absentee allowance than he should be drawing, had he never been Special Settlement Officer, Malabar, and South Canara, I have the honour to state that Mr. Moberly's statement is correct. His absentee allowance, during his present furlough is Rs 916-1-9 per mensem. This was calculated upon the salary drawn by him from 11th February 1894 to 10th February 1897 the three years preceding the date on which he gave over charge of his office, but in the absence of specific Government of India orders on the subject, the compensation for loss of pay drawn by him from 11th Februar

1897

1894 to 30th November 1894 was not taken into account. If the Government of India now direct that the above compensation allowance should be taken into account, Mr. Moberly will be entitled to an absentee allowance of Rs 987-1-8 per mensem, and an amended Last Pay certificate will be issued.

Absentee allowance to Mr. H. Moberly 208.

FOR ORDERS.

In 1895 the Secretary of State sanctioned the payment to Mr. H. Moberly 208. of a sum of Rs 6173-12-2 as an addition to the allowances drawn by him while employed as Special Settlement Officer [vide G. O. No. 844 Fin. dy 28 Oct 95]. This sum represented the difference between the salary of Mr. Moberly and of his immediate junior, Mr. Rawson from the 16 July 92 to 16 Aug. 94. Mr. Moberly subsequently claimed a further sum of Rs 4304-4-0 [vide note in G.O No. 18 Public dy. 8-1-97] This made up of the following items:-

H

(1) Rs 1854-1-9 representing the alleged increase in Mr. Moberly's salary over over that of Mr: Rawson from 16 July '92 to 15 March '93 which was set off against the subsequent loss sustained by the former in calculating the sum of Rs 6173-12-2 referred to above

(2) Rs 673-3-9 being the interest on loss of pay from the 1st April '93 to the 16 Aug: '94 calculated up to the 16 Dec: '94

(3) Rs 1587-10-0 representing the amount lost by Mr: Moberly from 16 Aug: 94 to 30 Nov: '94 in consequence of his being treated on return to the regular line as a second grade Collector.

(4) Interest on (3) up to 1st Sep: '96 amounting to Rs 189-4-7.

Mr: Moberly who had taken special leave for five months & twenty-four days from 19th Sept 1895. (also requested that the additional allowance (Rs 6173-12-2) sanctioned by the Secretary of State as well as the loss of pay from item No (3) supra 16 Aug 94 to 30 Nov: 94 amounting to Rs 1587-10-0 might be taken into consideration in calculating his absentee allowances during that leave.

The Govt, on receipt of a report from the Accts-Genl that the loss sustained by Mr: Moberly was reported in the first account Rs 476-7-7 for the total period of his absence on special leave at Rs 82-2-5 per mensem) and Rs 108-2-4 in the second account (at Rs 18-10-4 p.m.) disallowed items (1), (2) & (4) referred to above but The Govt, however obtained the sanction of the Secretary of State for the payment to Mr: Moberly of a further sum of Rs 2172-3-11 in full satisfaction of all demands. [vide G.O No: 1176 Pub: dt 6 Apl: 97]

This amount represented the sum total of the compensation for losses referred to in (3) - Rs 1587-10-0 and for the loss in absentee allowances amounting to Rs 584-9-11 (Rs 476-7-7 + Rs 108-2-4).

2. In C. No: 4763/97 Mr: Moberly desires to know how the sum of Rs 2172-3-11 was arrived at by Govt. The particulars of the item 'absentee allowance' have already been given above. In C. No: 354 of 98 the Accts-Genl gives the details of the compensation for loss of pay as shown in the margin. Mr: Moberly is ~~apparently~~ not satisfied with the Secretary of State's decision. He points out that the absentee allowance drawn by him (during his present furlough) is less than what it would have been, had he never been a Special Settlement Officer. The Accts. Genl. observes that Mr: Moberly's statement is correct & that he will become entitled to an absentee allowance of Rs 987-1-8 per mensem (instead of Rs 916-1-9 which he is drawing at present) if the Govt: of India directs that the Compensation paid to him between the 11 Feb 94 & 30 Nov. 94 be taken into account in calculating his leave allowances. The Accts. Genl is apparently referring to the question of treating the allowances paid to Mr. Moberly as part of his salary. This question must, it is submitted, be considered to have been practically

3. The points for orders are:-

(i) Should Mr. Moberly be furnished with details of the amount of compensation Rs 2172. 3. 11 sanctioned by the Secretary of State in 1897?

(ii) Is it necessary to go to India on the question of including in the calculation of his present leave allowances the compensation already paid to him for losses sustained.

As regards (i) there appears to be no reason why Mr. Moberly should not have the calculations.

With reference to (ii) it seems to be clear that India intended the compensation to be included in the calculation of the leave allowances, it considered the similar claim in regard to Mr. Moberly's absentee allowances while on special leave in 1895 (vide to be valid. para 2 of its despatch No. 144 Salaries & Establishments 11. June 1897 in G.O. No 1176 Public 16th September 1897). The A.G. however requires the specific orders of the Govt. of India on this point and it appears to will probably be the quickest way of closing the present case to obtain them.

Cmb. 26/3/98

The matter had better go to India for orders. The claim seems just. No further ref. to the S. of S. will be needed on this point.

In 1895 the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India sanctioned the payment to Mr. H. Moberly, I.C.S., of a sum of Rs. 6173-13-2 as an addition to the allowances drawn by him while employed as Special Settlement Officer in Malabar & S. Canara, this amount representing the difference between the salary of Mr. Moberly and of his immediate junior, Mr. Rawson between the 16th July 1892 and the 16th August 1894, the date upon which he relinquished the duties of Special Settlement Officer. Mr. Moberly subsequently claimed a further sum of Rs. 4304-4-1, made up of the following items:-

(1) Rs. 1854-1-9, representing the increase in Mr. Moberly's salary over that of Mr. Rawson from the 16th July 1892 to the 15th March 1895, which was set off against the subsequent loss sustained by the former, in arriving at the sum of Rs. 6173-13-2 referred to above;

(2) Rs. 673-3-9, being the interest on loss of pay from the 1st April

April 1893 to the 16th August 1894, calculated up to the 16th December 1894;

(3) Rs. 1,587-10-0, representing the amount lost by Mr. Moberly from 16th August 1894 to 30th November 1894 in consequence of his having been treated on return to the regular line as a Second Grade Collector;

(4) Rs. 189-4-7, being interest on (3) up to the 1st September 1896.

3. Mr Moberly, who had taken special leave for five months and twenty-four days from the 19th September 1895, also requested that the additional allowances (Rs. 6,173-13-3) sanctioned by the Secretary of State as well as the loss of pay from 16th August 1894 to 30th November 1894 [item No.(3) supra] amounting to (Rs.1,587-10-0) might be taken into consideration in calculating his absentee allowances during that leave.

4. The Govt, on receipt of a report from the Accountant-General that the loss sustained by Mr. Moberly in his leave allowances was under the first head mentioned in the preceding paragraph Rs. 476-7-7 for the total period of his absence on special leave (at Rs. 82-2-5 per mensem) and under the second head Rs. 108-3-4 (at Rs. 18-10-4 per mensem), disallowed items (1),(2) & (4) referred to above, but obtained the sanction of the Secretary of State for the payment to Mr. Moberly of a further sum of Rs. 2172-3-11 in full satisfaction of all demands.
