J., the acting Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, in addition to the leave concessions allowed to officers employed on duties connected with famine relief.

2. His extra work in connection with famine may be considered to have commenced in the beginning of October 1896 when he issued the first Note of warning of impending distress in P.P. No. 254 dated 3rd Octr. 1896 and exerted himself to make the necessary preparations to meet it. He was on duty as Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Bd. up to 13th Decr. 1897, and as Famine Commissioner from that date to 1st Decr. 1897, and as acting Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Bd. from 3rd January 1897 to the 4th of April. During the last period his work has been most arduous and tiring; he held the Famine Conference at Malabar, proceeded on a long and tedious tour in the Eastern taluks of the Bellary Bd. spending eight nights out of fourteen in travelling; attended the sittings of the Famine Commission for 2 days at Madras and 2 days at Bellary in addition to doing ordinary work, finished the Famine report and wrote the Conference report and answers to the 345 questions of the Famine Commission. With all this heavy extra work, the ordinary current work of the Board's office has not been permitted to suffer. He has travelled in all 14,181 miles from Decr. 1896 to date spending 54 nights in travelling and incurring heavy expenditure in connection therewith.
