Mr. Dadachanji states that in signing official documents he wishes to drop his third name Dadachanji, which he finds inconvenient & superfluous.

His ^{signature} name will then be

P. Kershap, instead of

P. K. Dadachanji.

His name as entered in the Civil list is "Pirozesah Kershapji" but the 'shah' & 'ji' are merely honorifics and he apparently proposes to drop them too.

It is not quite clear whether Mr. Dadachanji wishes to change his name as he known in public as Kershap, or whether it is hardly a question of signature.
If it is the former then all that is required is a G.O. recording his decide, saying that the necessary connection will be made in the civil list of Kershops will be an awkward name to go by). If

If it is merely a question of signature the proposal is a somewhat convenient one. A. Dadaoji used drop his middle name as a rule for purposes of signature in signing - Dr. Dadaoji however at present drops in his signature the name by which he will apparently continue to be known, Dadaoji.

The matter really hinges on the question as to what is the Parsi practice, & what the relative importance of the different components of a Parsi name. The name Dadaoji is said to be
'Dadaji' - say it is so here is nothing to show.
Submitted that the following do. may go to
Dr. Partridge.

I think I have not been able to obtain any definite information.

My Dear Partridge.

With ref. to your endorsement d. 23/3/98
submitting an application from Dadaoji for permission to retain his signature, will you please let me know whether Dadaoji wishes definitely & permanently to change his name, & be known in future with specially or merely as Kershops,
or whether he wishes to remain Dadaoji & merely to sign his name as Kershops. His application is not clear in this point.
Yours faithfully
