a full report.

The charge of pecuniary embarrassment is vague.

and quite insufficient to justify dismissal.

Shall the S.G.'s order of dismissal be modified to suspension to date of E.O. In.

ALA 2528

I really don't know what to say.

The man seems to have been in a state considerable pecuniary embarrassment but the S. J. has not given proper particulars -

I think I should have said

Submitting report of the Superintendent, Lunatic Asylum, Madras regarding the pecuniary embarrassment of late Civil S. Apothecary, Mr: C. T. Jones.

Let to. Of course he may not tell the truth about them - But I don't quite see what else to do - I don't quite like reinstating him if he really is deeply in debt

SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE
To GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, Public DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to G.O. No. 494 dated 31st March 1898, I have the honor to subjoin the report of the Superintendent, Lunatic Asylum, Madras, regarding the pecuniary embarrassments of Mr. (late Civil Apothecary) Jones.

"Civil Apothecary Jones admitted to me on more than one occasion that he was in straitened circumstances regarding money, so much so that he invariably asked for some advance of his pay before it had been drawn. In addi-tion to this there was overwhelming evidence from the Hos-pital Assistant, Nurses, and Native attendants that he had been continually in the habit of borrowing money, and when he was confronted by me he admitted having done so.

I am unable to say what was the extent of his pecuniary difficulty, as I never enquired further into the matter, but I am strongly of opinion that had he not had these heavy money troubles, he would not have got into the difficulty that he did."

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Surgeon-Major-General, Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras
