SUBJECT.

I should hardly have thought it necessary to make this provision, European and American criminal insanes being so very few. Under the present, I should not hesitate to lodge them with the ordinary insanes. Anyway, accommodation for 4 males & 2 females is sufficient for the present. As to the cost, I have estimated I should. In my opinion no special cost is needed. If it is, it is a much better I should say, to send these insanes to the Walter's Asylum, where the climate is much than much better. In addition of a house
I wonder there is not probably be an advantage

Stating with remarks that it is desirable to make some provision in the Madras Lunatic Asylum, for the accommodation of European criminal insanes.

Public DEPARTMENT,

SIR,

In reply to Memorandum No. 2599, dated 29th November 1897, I have the honor to report that I consider it desirable to make some provision in the Madras Lunatic Asylum for the accommodation of European Criminal maniacs.

2. As to the accommodation required separate buildings will have to be constructed. Taking six as the number of inmates to be provided for, the buildings should consist of two separate blocks of 3 single rooms each. Each cell or single room should have a superficial area of 100 sq. ft. and a cubical capacity of 1200 c. ft. A compartment 4 ft. square - should be added on at the back of each to serve as a latrine. A verandah should run the whole length of the block both before and behind. The roof should be terraced, not pent, and the doors (iron) of a good strong kind having regard to Memorandum No. 6547/11-3-98.

Read the following paper:—

With reference to his letter No. 145, dated 24 February 1898, the Surgeon-General is requested to report on the proposal which has been made that accommodation for European Criminal insanes should be provided in the Lunatic Asylum at Waltair instead of at Madras. The climate at the former place would probably be found more suitable, and the addition of a European warder to the establishment there would, it is suggested, be an advantage.

to the class of insanes confined. The blocks should be enclosed in a separate boundary wall, but attached to the present criminal enclosure, into which it should open by a door.

3. The following additional establishment would be required:—

1 European attendant at Rs: 50 per mensem, with Rs: 10 house rent, unless quarters are provided which would be preferable.

4 Native attendants (2 for day and 2 for night duty) at Rs: 15 per mensem each.

1 Sweeper.

The pay of the Native attendants, who would ^{have to} be accommodated within the Asylum, has been calculated at a somewhat higher rate than that ordinarily obtaining, to enable the Superintendent to secure thoroughly reliable and efficient men of good physique.

4. The above proposals relate to male insanes only. The provision for European female criminal insanes might be on similar lines as indicated in para 3, excepting that the establishment should be proportionately less in view of a smaller number, say 3, to be provided for.

Yours

Respectfully

Public DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

In reply to your memorandum No. 654, Public, dated 11th March 1898, I have the honor to inform you that I am not in favor of the provision of accommodation for European criminal insanes at Waltair, in preference to the Madras, Lunatic Asylum. It is true the former station has its climate and healthy situation to recommend it, but is, on the other hand, subject to the following disadvantages:-

(1) The Superintendent has to be frequently away from head quarters, while Madras has a European Superintendent who is always on the spot.

(2) The additional establishment required would be much larger than that proposed by me for Madras, as in case of illness or other emergencies, there would be no one to replace the one European attendant, a difficulty which would not be experienced in Madras. Further a cook, who understands the preparation of food for Europeans, would be needed at Waltair.

2. The contemplated move, I may point out, is also contrary to the policy adopted by Government in 1890 in G.O. No. 34, Judicial, dated 15th January 1890 of concentrating all criminal insanes at the Presidency Town.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Surgeon-Major-General, Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras.
