INDEXED.

[Despatch Abstract.]

Informing Lt. Col. King, I.M.S. that it is unnecessary to extend by any definite period the time within which he may avail himself of the famine concession, and that, after the ~~seasonal~~ restriction on leave to medical officers is removed, a reasonable time will be allowed within which the leave for famine service may be taken.

NOTE FOR THE C. S.

L. & M. } for C. S.
 Public. }

Dr. King was declared eligible for the special leave concessions granted to officers employed on famine and plague duties. These concessions are generally to be availed of within two years from the date on which they were granted, i.e. before the 15th Nov 1899. But Dr. King cannot avail himself of the concessions, as no leave other than leave on medical certificate will be for the present be granted to civil medical officers, and this restriction has not as yet been removed, nor, it is submitted, likely to be removed for some time to come.

2. In these circumstances Dr. King requests that in exercise of the power vested in Govt. in para 3(IV) of the resolution of the Govt. of India granting the concessions referred to, it may be pleased to extend the period within which he can avail himself of the concessions by one year, i.e. up to 15th Nov. 1900.

It is submitted that Dr. King's request may be complied with. A draft order is submitted.

Order in.

In exercise of the power vested in Govt. in para 3. (IV) of the resolution of the Govt. of India, no 5047 P. Finance and Commerce Dept, 15th Nov 1897. Govt is pleased to extend up to the 15th Nov 1900, the period within which Dr. King can avail himself of the concessions granted in the Resolution quoted above.
