The Surgeon General
submits an application
from Dr. J. B. Anderson, a temporary doctor, for permission to terminate his employment under Govt.
on the 2^d Nov: 1899.

2. In his letter no
J. 8/482, dated 26.8.99, the

Dr Anderson was very dangerously ill in the General Hospital, with enteric fever, and was not expected to recover.
He appears however to have recovered so far as to be he is advised that his state of health will not allow him to remain in India.

3. Dr. Anderson came out from England - in Oct. 1898, and completed his first engagement of nine months on the 29. June 1899. He was re-engaged from the last mentioned date for a further period of six months, with option on the part of Govt. to retain his services for a year. He will complete six months' service under the new agreement on 29. Decr. 1899, & he asks permission to anticipate that date by about two months.

in his new agreement, & if he is permitted to resign, he should apparently be allowed to draw pay at that rate up to the date of his departure.

As regards his passage home, he was provided with a short term return ticket on the London & North Western Railway, in accordance with what was done in the case of other temporary doctors. The difference of passage money demanded by the P. & O. Agent, should be defrayed by Govt. (please see last para. of G.O. No. 588 Public Adm. 31.5.1900)

5. Dr. Anderson asks that he may be furnished with a copy of his new agreement for use in London, in connection with claims to be made. There can be no harm in giving him a copy, but it will not be of much use to him.

from the Asst. Surg.

Orders are requested as to whether the application for permission to resign, which is supported by the Surgeon Genl, may be sanctioned.
