My dear Stokes,

In the matter of the Pondicherry Consulate, His Excellency ^{promised} ~~expressed the opinion~~ that if the Government of India had not passed orders about Cardozo by the end of January, he (His Excellency) would let Nepean go ^{then} handing over charge to the Pro Consul or Head Clerk or whomever the next man is.

It looks as if India's orders would not come in time and so His Excellency wishes to ask you to put the alter-

For orders

This is the reply of the Govt. of India to letter
no 1461 Public, dated 3 Decr 1898, regarding the proposed appointment of Mr Cardozo as British Consular Agent at Pondicherry.

2. In that letter it was proposed to permit Mr Carbozo to take special leave until the end of March next, & to enter on the office immediately pending his confirmation on the 1st April, when he retires from the Survey Dept.

3. The Govt. of India remarks that the nomination seems suitable, but that it is unable to agree to Mr Cardozo's being granted leave to enable him to take up the post at once. It points out that the effect of such an arrangement would be that Mr Cardozo would be in receipt of leave allowances, while remaining on duty in another off't. paid from his own resources. It considers, subject to any remarks which this Govt may wish to make, that Mr Cardozo should be required to retire from Govt. service as a preliminary to being appointed Consul Agent -

4. The Govt. of India having refused to sanction the arrangement, it is not clear what further remarks can be submitted to that Govt. If it is

I think the Govt. of India are right.

A.S.H.

Mr. Cardozo should be asked if he will retire at once. The off't. must not be kept open till the 1st April.

A.S.H.

N.B. If Mr. Cardozo consents to retire at once, he may be appointed from the date on which Capt. Napier leaves, 12th Feb.
