Revenue
No 233.

India Office,
London, 15th December 1898.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable
The Governor General, of India in Council

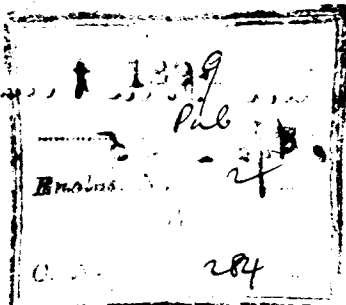

My Lord,

With reference to my Telegram of the 25th November (given in the margin), I enclose for Your Excellency's information a list of the names and qualifications of the ten selected doctors required for temporary plague or general duty in Madras together with signed copies of the Agreements entered into with them.

From Secy of State 25th Novr. 1898.
Your telegram of 9th Novr. Three doctors started on the 17th November from Marseilles, five started on the 1st December and two will follow 8th December.
* Four only started and three, instead of two on the 8th December.

2. It will be observe that two of the doctors (Dr Beach and Mc Lean) were employed on temporary plague duty in 1897-98 and have now been re-engaged.
In Dr Beach's case the enhanced salary of Rs 600 is stated in his agreement, and as he was unable to serve beyond

Six

six months, in all, he was engaged for that period only. Dr. McLean's agreement states his salary at Rs 500; but he was told that if a higher salary should be sanctioned for re-engaged men, he would become eligible for the higher rate. His salary should therefore be adjusted at the rate of Rs 600 a month.

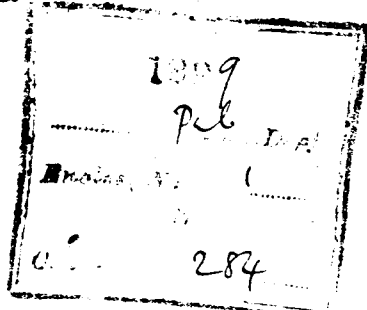

3. All the doctors have been furnished with return passages for four months with powder of extirpation, except in the case of Dr. Berch whose ticket is for six months only.

4. In accordance with the request contained in your telegram of the 20th November a clause has been inserted in the new agreements (clause 4) providing for the determination of service in case of misconduct or disobedience. Four of the men however had been engaged on the old agreements before your telegram was received, and it was not considered advisable to insert the new clause in their agreements.

I signed
