Sir,

ENCLOSURES.

As frequent complaints have been received regarding the unsatisfactory way in which the Municipality of Bellary do their work so far as that Cantonment is concerned, it is considered desir-able that, if possible, this Canton-ment should be separated from the Municipality and a Cantonment authority under the Cantonments Act (XIII of 1889) established.

In order that this matter may be fully considered a Com-mittee composed of the marginally -noted officers has been ordered to be assembled and I am desired to request that if there is no objec-tion Government will be pleased to depute an officer of the Civil Account.

- (1) Collector of Bellary
- (2) Officer Commanding Bellary
- (3) Senior Medical Officer, Bellary
- (4) Executive Engineer, Bellary
- (5) A representative of the Municipal Committee, Bellary

Accounts Department for duty in connection with the above Committee, the financial aspect of the proposed change being very important.

I have the honor to be,

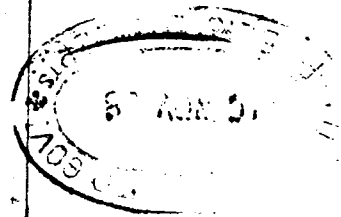

Sir,

Your obedient servant,
