-- Letter No. 252 of 1896, dated 18th March 1896, from the Government of India, to the Government of Bombay, regarding the Finance and Commerce Department. Salaries, Establishments, &c., Administration.

To
The Right Honourable Lord George Francis Hamilton
Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India
Simla, the 4th August 1896.

My Lord,
In continuation of our Financial Despatch No. 182 dated the 23rd June last, we have the honour to forward, -- for Your Lordship's consideration a copy of a correspondence with the Government of Bombay, regarding the salary of Mr. F. C. Parsons, I. C. S., of the Madras Establishment, for the period during which he was employed in the Bombay Presidency in 1897.

2. Mr. Parsons is one of the four Madras Civilians who -- were temporarily transferred to the Bombay Presidency in -- March 1897 in consequence of the pressure of work there -- caused by the famine. He was appointed by the Government of Bombay as an Assistant Collector and was allowed to draw salary at the rate of Rs. 1033 a month. Having noticed the appointment in the statement, submitted to us by the Accountant General, Bombay, of temporary appointments and -- deputations sanctioned by the Government of Bombay under -- Article 95(b) of the Civil Service Regulations during the half year ending the 31st December 1897, we inquired, in -- our Home Secretary's letter No. 209, dated the 18th March last, of the Local Government under what circumstances a salary of Rs. 1033 a month had been allowed, the pay of an Assistant Collector of the 1st grade in Bombay being only Rs. 900 a month.

3. In their letter of the 10th May, the Government of Bombay
