Civil Surgeon's Office
Cotacamund 28th Febry 1899.

No. 866

From

Major C. M. Thompson M. B.

Civil Surgeon, Cotacamund

To Secretary to Surgeon-General with the Govt of Madras

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to remind the Surgeon-General that the tenure of my present appointment of Civil Surgeon, Cotacamund, will in the ordinary course, terminate on June 1st next on which date two years will have elapsed since I assumed charge.

2. The circumstances of my tenure of the appointment have been unusual, in that exigencies of the service necessitated my being sent on active service three and a half months after the date on which I took up the appointment. I only returned to Cotacamund from field service with the Tivak Expedition on April 1st 1898. so that, on the first of next June I shall have only held the appointment of ~~chief~~ surgeon for one year and ~~two months~~ continuous service.

3. I need hardly point out to the Surgeon-General that the pecuniary advantages to be derived from the appointment which are supposed to recompense an officer for the expense involved in the move from the plains, - depends in a great measure, on his being allowed to remain for the whole term of two years, and that any break without a break in the term of the appointment is likely to seriously interfere with his chance of establishing a private practice.

4. I request therefore that the Surgeon-General will be pleased to take into consideration the special circumstances of my case and forward to

His Excellency the Governor, with his favourable recommendation, my application for such extension of my term of appointment here, as His Excellency may be pleased to grant.

5. The Surgeon-General will no doubt remember that Lt Col Browne was granted an extension of his tour up here in consideration of his having been absent for six months, on duty in an acting appointment in Madras.

Lt Col Browne was permitted to count his tour of two years from the date on which he resumed his duties at Cochin after his return from the acting appointment in Madras.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Yours truly obed. Servt.

C. M. Thompson Esq
Major. Aid. Genl. Service.
