The Rev A. W. Brough

The Chief Secretary to Government
Madras.

Sir,

In reference to a telegram I sent you this afternoon I have the honor to state the question more fully herein.

This morning there was to have been a marriage between two native Christians but as the bridegroom was the brother of the bride ~~an~~ an objection was raised. I at once applied to the Registrar who doubted its legality but was not prepared to give a definite opinion. I then went to the Registrar-General who replied "not authorized to give opinion, please apply Government." On receipt of this reply I telegraphed to you. The urgency in the case arises through friends having come from Bangalore & other distant places to be present on the occasion and also because the parties have made all the usual preparations.
