[Despatch Abstract.]

Informing Mr. E. Regni of Bangalore, Mysore State, that as he is not residing in territory under British rule his case does not fall under the provisions of the Aliens Naturalization Act XXX of 1852, and that the Govt is therefore unable to grant him a certificate of naturalization as a British subject.

Mr Regier is a resident in the native
State of Mysore, & it seems doubtful whether he can be granted a certificate of naturalization.

Act XXX of 1852 applies

The Petitioner will be informed that he can only be naturalized as a British subject under the Alien Naturalization Act XXX of 1832. Section 1 of the act provides that while actually residing within the territory under British Govt., he may present a memorial begging that the privileges of naturalization may be conferred upon him.

 As he is not residing in such territory, the Govt. regrets that his application cannot be considered.
