CURRENT No. 1291

From
The Government Epigraphist.

For Orders -

In letter no 96 Public of 21-1-99. The Resident in Mysore was requested to supply the Govt.
Epigraphist with a copy of Mr Nice's Gazette of Mysore & Coorg.
No reply has been received to that letter, but apparently the volumes have been received - A second copy of the work is sent to be now required for Dr. Hultzsch's own use, that already received being for use in the office - Dr. Hultzsch is now on furlough, & by the time he returns, his leave has not yet probably been returned from his leave, & the book will be sent to him.

or its expense. No charge has been made for the copy already supplied, but the work is a Mysore Govt. publication, & it is a question whether this Govt. would be justified in asking for a second copy.

As Dr. Hultzsch is working 3-5-99 his office by correspondence from Durban - but it seems hardly necessary to supply him with duplicates of books of reference which are in his office.

From

The Government Epigraphist,

To

The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to address the Resident in Mysore for a copy of the 2nd edition of Mr. Rice's Gazetteer of Mysore and Coorg, Vols. I. and II., which Dr. Hultzsch wants for his use. He reports that he had purchased from his own pocket a copy of the old edition of these volumes, to which he had frequently to refer. The copy of the new edition of this work remains

The Govt. does not consider it necessary to supply the Govt.
Librarian with duplicates of books of reference which are in his office.
