Extract from letter from the Special Commissioner, dated 25" July 1899, Cur.No.112/99:--

"With reference to your telegram, dated 24th asking whether my deputation can be brought to conclusion, I have the honour to say that I am visiting Madura on Thursday the 27th. where I will see Mr.Partridge. I intend to remain there two days and if Mr.Stevenson is able as he promised to furnish me with full statement regarding the cases arising out of the disturbances here tomorrow, I hope I shall be able to make such progress with my report by Saturday next as will enable me to finish it almost immediately when I get back to Ootacamund without prejudice to my duties as Secretary to Government."
