For order

Dr. C. E. D. D.

Pryce requests permission to resign the Command of the Madras Volunteer Guards, & a draft letter to the Govt. of India, for wounding the application, is submitted.

2. Orders are requested with reference to para 68 A. R. I. Vol IX, which prescribes that when the Command of a Volunteer Corps becomes vacant, the name of the new Commandant nominated should immediately be reported to the Govt.

There are two N^os attached from the D. A. G. to the Adm. Sec., the first, saying that there is no suitable officer in the Madras Command, whom he can recommend for appointment as Commandant of the M. V. G.; and the second, saying that the Lieut. Col. Com^d, has no objection to Capt. Fanning being ^{temporarily} appointed Acting Commandant, in addition to his other duties, pending the arrival of a permanent incumbent. Steps may be taken

Thanks for official reply just received about Madras Volunteer guards. You forgot however to reply to my second question, whether there would be any objection to Captain Formby being put in to command temporarily in addition to his other duties. I presume it would be all right
