I agree with the C. S. that we should know all the correspondence that goes on, but I think our object will be attained if we desire to have copies of all letters on important matters such as are referred to in para 1 of the current, and abstracts or copies of the dockets of the rest. We can always call for a copy of any letter ~~received~~ of which abstract or docket only has been received. The C. S. will probably ask for an increase of staff if we ask for copies of everything!

Copy of this is a list of the important letters. 17/4/89.
