To

The Collector of Tinnevely.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that Sundiram, aged 25, the wife of Kunnimalai Vannan Parikkar, a Hindu by religion was confined on Monday the 24th July last of three infants all males. The mother and children are all doing well. They are poor people and they find a difficulty to provide nourishment for the three infants.

2. In England it is the custom for Her Gracious Majesty the Queen to send a Bounty of £3.3.0 to the mother of triplets and if this case of one of her loyal and humble subjects be represented to Her Majesty perhaps these poor people may receive some assistance.

3. In the North of Tinnevely, the people have been wantonly fighting and destroying lives. In the South of Tinnevely we have all been at peace and this one humble subject of Her Imperial and Gracious Majesty at least has produced at one birth three lives and increased the population.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

A. Margöschis.
