No. 3226 From the Sh., No. 352, dated 11-11-1899

Note

In passing orders ^{in 1895,} on the subject of the distribution of work among Medical Officers in the Presy Div ~~in 1895,~~ Govt remarked that it saw "no necessity for District Surgeons at the Presy having a "clerk & peon each".

2 With reference to these orders the Sd in his letter of 25-10-95 ^{magnitude of the} drew attention to the office work of the 1st District, Madras, & re-strongly recommended that a clerk on Rs 25 be sanctioned for that office. It was sanctioned "as a temporary arrangement" And Mr Bliss' Note on the subject indicates that it was the order of Govt, in granting sanction reconsider the arrangement on the completion of the Medical ^{College} reorganisation scheme then in its initial stages. ~~Re-orders~~ This sanction has been extended every six months since the original grant — but always with reference to the fact that its "temporary" nature was derived from the rearrangement of the Medical work in Madras which has been so long under consideration.

3. In the Ct a further extension is solicited. It is for orders whether, now the Medical College file is developing into a ~~80~~ ⁸⁰, ~~set~~ the grant shd be continued. It will be observed that the last extension expired on Sept 30th last & that the orders now to be passed will have effect from Oct 1st /99.
