Copy of a letter No.61018/2949 dated 21st October 1899, from War Office, London, S.W, to the Lieut-General Commanding the Forces, Madras.

I am directed by the Secretary of State for War to inform you that it has been decided that any instructions issued by this Department, to stations abroad, either by telegram or otherwise, in regard to the arrangements to be made on the occasion of the death, etc., of any Royal Persons, should be at once communicated by you to the Governor of the Colony, in order to avoid the necessity of similar instructions being given by the Colonial Office, and I am to request, therefore, that in future you will be so good as to furnish the Governor with a copy of any orders on the subject, emanating from the War Office, immediately on their receipt.

The Governor of Colonies have been informed of this decision by the Colonial Office.

From the precedents put up in the file below it will be seen that all Communications received on the subject of the death of Royal persons have been from the Govt. of India and that before the abolition of the Military Dept. such information reached the Command-in-Chief ~~only~~ through the local Military Dept.

2. No Communication has been received from the Govt. of India on the subject of para 2 of the letter from the War office. Under the circumstances therefore

Therefore, it would appear that the present instructions do not apply to India.

3. Orders are requested as to whether the D.A.G. may be informed in the sense of the above terms.

This, it is subm^d, seems to be the case. A draft disposal is subm^d for approval.
