Note.

Surgeon Major C M Thompson was formerly attached to the 6th M. I. at Trichinopoly.

His services were placed at the disposal of this Govt ^{in 1882} for temporary employment as Civil Surgeon -

Madura. He reverted to military duty & was again placed at the disposal of this Govt, in 1885, for Civil duty.

2. Major Thompson ^{late} expressed a wish, in anticipation of getting the Staff Surgeoncy of Secunderabad, to revert to military duty & the following Govt of India was, in connection with the question of that appointment, asked by wire whether his services shd be replaced at the disposal of the Govt of India

The reply was that no informⁿ

had been rec^d from mil^y authorities on the subject. The reason for this will be seen from the Secy Genl's letter dated 13/10/99 in GO R No 1331 Pub d/10/99-

3. The Current shows that Major Thompson is desirous of returning to mil^y duty as early as possible irrespective of the question of the Secunderabad appointment.

The Sd makes no recommendation but his telegram of 13th Oct last indicates that he approves of the transfer -

Orders solicited as to whether the application may be forwarded to the G of I (Home Dept) and India whether Major Thompson's services shall be placed at their disposal.

28/11/99 C. Major Thompson's return in regard to his letter to Capt. Frank (vide GO No 1274 Pub d. 13-11-99) has not yet been reported. Orders are reported that the Sd. should be asked what Major Thompson has done since his G.O. his present papers lying over in his hands.
