Famine Concessions.

Extending to April 1900 the period during which Mr. C. G. Spencer, I.C.S., may avail himself of the leave concessions granted in G.O., No. 480, Revenue, dated 26th August 1898.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., No. 1140, Public, dated 7th September 1898.

ABSTRACT.—Recording Proceedings, Revenue Department, declining certain officers employed on famine to be eligible for famine concessions sanctioned by the Government of India, Mr. Woodhouse, Second Assistant, Chief Secretariat, being one of the officers.

READ—also the following papers:—

Read—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), R. No. 2796, dated 6th November 1899:—

Letter from C. G. SPENCER, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Sub-Collector and Joint Magistrate, Hosūr Division, to the Collector of Salem, dated Camp, Hosūr, 15th October 1899.

In G.O., No. 480, Revenue, dated 26th August 1898, Government were pleased to declare me entitled to two months' special leave on account of famine service.

2. According to G.O., No. 2387 L., dated 8th December 1897, this concession ordinarily ceases to be admissible after the expiry of two years from 15th November 1897. But by G.O., No. 512, Revenue, dated 3rd August 1899, I am permitted to convert privilege leave taken between 15th November 1897 and 15th November 1899 into special leave granted under the above resolution.

3. Paragraph 3 (iv) of the Government of India Resolution in the second Government Order quoted above states that such concessions may, with the consent of the Local Government, be carried on beyond 15th November 1899, in cases where the exigencies of the public service have necessitated the refusal of leave when applied for and have thus prevented the grant of the full concessions earned within the prescribed period.

4. In April 1898, I applied to the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor for leave to avail myself of a month of my special leave, but was informed demi-officially that there was no chance of my request being granted, as arrangements could not be made to relieve me. On this advice I considered it hopeless to make any official application for leave. Again this year I applied to add my special leave to the three months' ordinary privilege leave granted to me from 17th May 1899 in G.O., R. No. 605, Public, dated 4th May 1899, and I was informed that the rules did not permit of such an arrangement.

5. I have the honour to request that the concession granted to me may, in consideration of the circumstances mentioned in paragraph 4, be carried on till May 1901 or at least till April 1900; or, if this is not possible, that I may be permitted to convert the three months' ordinary privilege taken by me from 18th May 1899 into two months' famine leave and one month's privilege leave, leaving me two months' ordinary privilege leave still due.

Endt. Dis. No. 3210.

Submitted to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue for obtaining the orders of Government.

Resolution—R. No. 2796, dated 6th November 1899.

Forwarded through the Accountant-General for the orders of Government to which the application should have been submitted direct by the Collector under paragraph 2 (2) of G.O., No. 282, Revenue, dated 18th May 1898.

Forwarded.

2. Under paragraph 3 (iv) of the Government of India Resolution No. 5047 P., Financial, dated 15th November 1897, it rests with Government to permit Mr. Spencer to take the extra privilege leave for two months for famine work in May 1901 or April 1900.

3. As regards Mr. Spencer's request that the three months' privilege leave taken by him in 1899 may be converted into extra privilege leave for two months and ordinary privilege leave for one month, it is pointed out that, as his duty was interrupted by his having overstayed his privilege leave for three months from 18th May 1899 by four days, he will have no claim to the balance of two months' ordinary privilege leave.

To the Chief Secretary to Government.

ORDER—No. 1388, Public, dated 18th December 1899.

The period during which the major famine concession granted to Mr. C. G. Spencer, I.C.S., in G.O., No. 480, Revenue, dated the 26th August 1898, may be availed of by him will be extended to April 1900.

Grant of famine leave concession to Mr.C.G.Spencer,I.C.S.

NOTE FOR THE

In G.O.5.480 Revenue,dated the 26th August 1898,Mr.C.G.Spencer,I.C.S., was declared eligible for the major famine concession referred to in para 2(ii) of Govt. of India,Finance & Commerce,Resolution No.5047 F.,dated 15th November 1897 i.e. to two months' extra privilege leave or 16 full pay for the first four months' furlough or other leave. In the ordinary course this concession lapsed on the 15th instant under para 3 (iv) of the Resolution quoted above. The Govt. is,however,competent to extend the concession beyond the two years limit in cases where the exigencies of the public service have necessitated the refusal of leave when applied for and have thus prevented the grant of the full concessions earned within the prescribed period. Mr.Spencer states that in April 1898 he informally applied to the P.S.G. for permission to avail himself of a month of his special leave but that he was informed that there was no chance of his request being granted.

Mr.Spencer

Mr. Spencer requests that the concession granted to him may be carried on to April 1900 or May 1901 or that he may be permitted to convert the 3 months' ordinary privilege leave taken by him in May last to two months' famine leave and one month's privilege leave, leaving him with two months ordinary leave being still due to him.

The Accountant-General points out that the first request rests with the Govt. and that as regards the second, Mr. Spencer has, under articles 277 of the Civil Service Regulations, forfeited his claim to the balance of two months ordinary privilege leave by overstaying the privilege leave granted to him in May 1899.

Orders are solicited as to whether, in these circumstances, the concession maybe extended ~~as to~~ May 1901 as prayed for by Mr. Spencer.

~~Mr. Spencer could have been aware of this at the time he was granted the concession, and was responsible for it.~~

I think the concession may be carried on to April 1900, but not to 1901.

At 2.12.99.

Mr. Spencer does not think the concession should be further referred.
