Dated 14-12- 1899 .

Understood from your endorsement M.D.N./430, dated 11th that H.G.
Stokes need not take and hand over charge of the Ag. Head Assistantship of Tanjore before proceeding on privilege leave and that there will be no objection to his dating his leave from the 3th January provided that Waller hands over charge to the Collector on that date and regazetted as Ag.

ship, and resumes it on the 8th January. The Head Assistant's post at Negapatam must remain practically vacant during the interval. It is also submitted that Mr Waller should be re-gazetted to act as Head Assistant with effect from the 8th January.

Cum 124 Since I wrote the letter of the 15-12-99

A. G. has overruled the former A. G. and has held that there must be no transfer of charge which was the view I originally took of the matter. In regard to the change of the H. G. Stokes Office at Bangalore during the holidays Mr. Walker did not leave Bangalore and he is at the H. G. Stokes Office at Bangalore during the holidays. In this way any interruption to the work will be avoided. Mr. Walker can be put in possession of the position of the office and by D. O. and can arrange for the discharge of the duties of the office.

Mr. H. G. Stokes may have the leave asked for,
and the arrangements proposed by the Chief Secy. are approved.

My dear Swigg,

H. G. Stokes has been granted privilege leave for three months in continuation of the Christmas holidays.
As he retains a lien upon the H. G. Head Assistant Ship of Yangon, Walker has in order to fulfil the requirements of article 251 of the C. S. R., to hand over charge
of his division to you on the afternoon of the 23rd instant and revert to Assistant during the holidays. He will, in the meantime, be re-garnett^{ed} to Head Ass^t-Ship and he should resume charge of the division from you on the forenoon of the 8th proximo. He should not, however, leave Negapatam, but should, as your Assistant, discharge the duties of the Head Assistant's office, which will be very light, during the holidays.

Yours faithfully
