Note

11/12/99
The League Dept no. 3214 of 12.12.99.
Please see GO no 183/4 Pub of 13.2.99 in which this Govt strongly deprecated the introduction of the Hon^{ble} Mr. Amarda Charles's Bill to amend the Religious Endowments Act on the ground that it was too comprehensive in its scope.
In GO 1065/6 Pub of 23.9.99 this Govt forwarded to the Govt of India for approval a draft Madras Hindu Temples Bill which was intended to replace the Hon^{ble} Mr. Amarda Charles's Bill as far as this Procy was concerned.
(Amarda Charles's Bill)
Whether the Bill referred to in the above question will ever become law is, therefore, very doubtful. With regard to the question itself the form of reply must, it is submitted, depend largely on the reply given to Question IX in Revenue.

11/12/99

Out of the question

Govt has condemned the Hon^{ble} Mr. Amarda Charles's Bill as a whole, & cannot therefore, it is submitted, with consistency make suggestions for altering its provisions, or adding to them.

The Hon'ble GHULAM MUHAMMAD KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—

IX. Will the Government be pleased to direct that the income derived from Muhammadan charitable and religious institutions which are resumed by Government under the inam rules, be devoted to educational purposes?
