From A. H. L. FRASER, Esq, 'c.s.i., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India (Home Department—Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla; 17th October 1898, No. 2057.

14-12-97
 With reference to the correspondence ending with Home Department endorsement No. 2279, dated the 23rd October 1897, regarding the question of restricting the right of appeal against departmental punishments which public servants holding subordinate appointments now enjoy, I am directed to say that it has been decided not to make any alteration in the rules regulating the submission of petitions to the Government of India. The Governor-General in Council has, however, no objection to Local Governments and Administrations making a rule, if they desire to do so, as proposed by the Government of Madras, prohibiting second appeals by Government servants on a salary not exceeding Rs. 50 a month when the appeal is to the Local Government, and Rs. 25 a month when the appeal is to any other authority. I am to ask that, if such a rule is made by the Government of Madras, the fact may be reported for the information of the Government of India.

ORDER—No. 199, Public, dated 17th February 1899.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to add the following clause to Rule V of the rules regarding petitions addressed to the Government of Fort St. George:—

(11) When a petition is an appeal against any order prejudicially affecting a Government servant who is in receipt of a salary not exceeding Rs. 50 a month, if an appeal against such order has already been decided by an officer superior to the officer passing the order.

2. The letter from the Government of India will be communicated to all departments of the Secretariat with a view to the issue of orders in each department specifying the officers, or classes of officers, in each branch of the public service, drawing a salary of not more than Rs. 25 per mensem in whose case a second appeal is to be altogether prohibited.

FOR ORDERS.

G.O. 92

In G.O. No. 49, Revenue, dated 22nd January 1894, orders were passed on certain recommendations of the Rev. Board for the curtailment of Administration Reports and the reduction of official correspondence. One of the items under which the Board suggested that correspondence might be reduced was in connection with appeals from Govt. servants. The Board recommended that no second appeal should lie to Govt. in the case of an officer of the Rev. Dept. drawing less than Rs. 50 a month, or to the Board in the case of an officer drawing less than Rs. 25. The Govt. approved this suggestion and considered that the rule might be varied to suit other Depts., but before carrying it into effect, it was

Note for the Secretary objection in this Dept.
11/1/77

In G.O. No. 49, Revenue, dated 29th January 1894, orders were passed on certain recommendations of the Revenue Board for the curtailment of Administration Reports and the reduction of official correspondence. One of the items under which the Board suggested that correspondence might be reduced was in connection with appeals from Government servants. The Board recommended that no second appeal should lie to Government in the case of an officer of the Revenue Department drawing less than Rs. 50 a month, or to the Board in the case of an officer drawing less than Rs. 25. The Government approved the suggestion, and considered that the rule might be varied to suit other departments, but before carrying it into effect, effect, it was thought desirable to consult the Government of India.

2. The draft letter to India flagged C, written in the Revenue Department was transferred to, and issued in the Public Department. The notes on which the draft was based will be found attached to original G.O.No.

49, Revenue, dated 22nd January 1894.

3. In October 1897, the Government of India forwarded a copy of its circular letter to other Governments and administrations asking for opinions on the subject.

4. The proposal appears to have found general acceptance, for the Government of India in Current No. 5392, has authorized local Governments and administrations, if they desire to do so, to make a rule such as that suggested by this Government in its letter of 20th February 1894, No. 119, Public.

5. With regard to restriction of appeals from Government servants drawing less than Rs.25 it is proposed to leave it to each Department of the Secretariat to make rules for the Departments under its control.

6. The prohibition against appeals to Government from Government servants drawing salaries of not more than Rs.50 per mensem may at once be added to the C Petition Rules, and the following disposal is submitted.
