From

A. REA, ESQUIRE,

SUPERINTENDENT, ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY,

MADRAS,

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that a monthly sum of Rs 25 is sanctioned as office rent. It is impossible to secure a suitable bungalow in a respectable quarter at anything like that amount.

2- The present office costs Rs 30 per month, and I have to pay the difference between that and the sanctioned rent. The house is a small one, situated in the midst of a bazaar; and in the case of the occurrence of any epidemic like that which lately prevailed, it is a matter of extreme danger for anyone attending the office.

The Supt. Architect, Survey, whose head quarters are at Bangalore, asks for sanction to an increase of his office rent from Rs. 25 to Rs. 40 per mensem, with effect from the commencement of the ensuing financial year.

2. He states that his present office costs Rs. 30 per mensem, and that he has to pay the difference of Rs. 5* himself. Also that the building is a small one, situated in the midst of a bazaar, & that in the case of epidemics, it is

... and the ... danger for any one attending the office.

3. There appears to be no separate order sanctioning a rent of Rs 25 per mensem for Mr. Rea's office. In G.O. no 98 Public dated 25.1.88, the removal of Mr. Rea's office to Mangalore was sanctioned on the condition that "the expense can be met from the existing Archaeological Grant". He was told at the same time that there were no buildings at Mangalore under the control of this Govt., where quarters could be found for his office. In June 1889, he reported that he had removed his office to Mangalore, but he did not say what arrangements he had made for office accommodation. The charges connected with the Archaeological Surveyor's dept. were at that time

Imperial - they were provided from 1 April 1890. In his budget for 1891-92, at page 4, Mr. Rea showed a sum of Rs 25 per mensem or Rs 300 per annum as house rent. A similar provision has been sometimes in subsequent budgets. The budget for 1899-1900 was sanctioned in G.O. no 829 dated 27.2.9 if the present application be complied with, there will be an additional charge to be provided for in the ensuing financial year - It seems a pity - that Mr. Rea did not bring this matter forward before his budget estimate was fixed.

4. The papers might perhaps be sent to Secy (A.O.) to say whether the additional charge of Rs 150 can be provided for.

He has now to be decided whether the increase of office rent should be allowed - As Mr. Rice has been so late in making the application, he might be told that there is no provision for the charge in the Budget estimate for 99-1900, & that he ^{may} bring the matter forward in connection with his budget for 1900-01 -
