Honored Sir,

I believe you are aware that Mr. Ramesawmi Naidu, Asst. Supt. Madras Revenue Survey Dept., has been given the title of Rao Bahadur on the New Year's day, for his meritorious service in the Dept. He is the only Naidu gentleman now in service who has risen to this position. It is proposed by the Naidu Community in general, to entertain him at a social gathering, to show our appreciation and loyalty to Govt. for recognising the services of Naider stating her intention to entertain Mrs.

objection which he requests that permission of Govt may be granted for holding such a gathering.

2. Though the report is guardedly worded still it is submitted that ^{the so called social gathering} it cannot be anything but a Complimentary

3. The proposal is clearly in contravention of Rule 48, para 15 of the pamphlet, Private & informal entertainments are allowed only in the case of officials retiring from the service. But the present proposal does not come under that head. It is evidently intended to have a public meeting among the

Sec^r Submitted that the applicant
