Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 162 (Public), dated the 17th November 1898.

Resolution.—In paragraph 2 of the Resolution of the 4th May 1874, the Government of India authorized the grant of a reward of Rs. 500 to an officer engaged in administration under the Governments of Madras, Bombay and Bengal who, after passing in two compulsory languages, passes in a third compulsory language, provided he passes within one year from the date of his becoming liable to pass in the additional compulsory language. Under the Resolution of the 13th May 1876, a similar reward of Rs. 500 is admissible to any officer in the Assam Commission who within one year of his becoming liable to examination passes in Bengali or Assamese as a third compulsory language.

2. The question of the eligibility of an officer for a like reward for passing in a fourth and every other additional compulsory language having been raised by the Government of Bombay in the letter read in the preamble, the Governor General in Council is pleased to decide, with the approval of the Secretary of State, that when an officer can, subject to certain conditions, claim a reward for passing in a third compulsory language, he may, provided he fulfils the required conditions, be granted a like reward for every other additional language in which he may be required to pass.

Order.—Ordered, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Government of Bombay, in continuation of the letter from this department, No. 444, dated the 18th October 1898; to the Governments of Madras and Bengal and the Chief Commissioner of Assam, and also to the Local Governments and Administrations named in the margin; and to the Finance and Commerce Department, with reference to the despatch from that department, No. 5486-Ex., dated the 16th December 1898.
