CURRENT No. 780

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., No. 211, Public, dated 6th February 1884.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating letter from Bombay Government intimating that orders have been issued for the deportation of Patrick McCarthy to England, and stating that if any able-bodied vagrants can be induced to transfer themselves voluntarily to Bombay on payment of their travelling expenses, endeavours will be made to find employment for them or to deport them without any expense to the State.

READ—also the following paper :—

From R. M. KENNEDY, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Judicial Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Bombay Castle, 8th March 1899, No. 1731.

Adverting to this department letter, No. 641, dated the 28th January 1884, in which it was intimated that if any able-bodied vagrants could be induced to transfer themselves voluntarily to Bombay on payment of their travelling expenses the Governor of the Government Workhouse at Bombay would probably be able to find employment for them or to deport them without any expense to the State, I am directed to request that it may be represented to the Government of Madras that local circumstances have changed and that the conditions of the labour market are not what they were when the letter of 1884 was written.

2. The Governor of the Bombay Workhouse reports that there is now great difficulty in finding employment for vagrants admitted to the Workhouse and that it is impossible to secure a passage for them to England, without payment, and he has, in consequence, suggested the discontinuance of the practice of transferring vagrants from Madras to Bombay. This recommendation is supported by the President of the Workhouse Committee of Management, who furthermore draws attention to the fact that employers of labour show the greatest disinclination to taking vagrants into their service even on probation.

3. In these circumstances I am to state that the transfer of vagrants to Bombay is no longer desirable and to request that the intimation in a contrary sense which was conveyed in Mr. Macpherson's letter of 1884 may be considered cancelled.
