Note for the Chief Secretary.

The President, Board of Examiners, submits a report on the results of the half yearly examination of Assistants held at the beginning of ^{January} ~~the last month~~. Mr Ghose who did not appear at the examination has been exempted from passing the Higher Standard. In para 3 of G.O. No. 1163 Pub, dated the 14th September 1898, Messrs Austin and Burn were warned that if they failed to complete the Higher Standard Examination in January 1899, they would be liable to the penalty prescribed in article 29 of the J. C. S. Manual, viz. suspension Mr Austin was on privilege leave at the time of the examination and so did not appear. Mr. Burn has yet to pass in the second language.

3. of the other officers who have not yet passed the Higher Standards, Messrs R.B. Hood and R.H. D'E. Ash have only ^{more} two chances. Perhaps it would be well to warn these two officers of the provisions of article 29 of the I.A.S. Manual.

4. The orders are submitted to the Secretary to be made in the name of the Secretary, Burn, Hood and Ash.

24-2-99

They probably desire this, but I would suggest that as the reduction is in the nature of a punishment, it should be decided before the punishment is imposed. It should not be decided as a punishment. It should be decided as a punishment. It should be decided as a punishment.

24-2-99

I have thought that voluntary absence from the office in excuse in the case of Mr. Burn seems to be a reasonable means of saving the penalty. See below.

Messrs Wood and Ash have only their 'First Language' to pass in and as they have no more chances, there seems to be no necessity to draw their attention to the rule.

Suspension is a very severe penalty. I think it will be sufficient to remove Messrs Austin & Burn from their posts. A. B. Astle's will involve a reduction of salary from Rs 675-8-11 to Rs 396-1-9 with the intimation that suspension will be inflicted if they fail to pass at the next exam.
