Copy of ~~a~~ letter ~~from~~ the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras to the Principal Medical Officer, Madras Command, No. T 8/83 dated 8th April 1899.

With reference to your letter No. Medl./4166 dated the 14th March 1899 (enclosures herewith returned as requested), I have the honor to state that the Surgeon, 1st District, Madras, has already more than enough to do and cannot fairly be asked to undertake further duties.

2. I would propose that the Medical Officer in charge of a Native Regiment in Madras may be deputed to perform these duties or if the Royal Army Medical Corps Medical Officer was appointed Staff Surgeon and given the allowances for the charge of a Brigade it would meet all difficulties.
