For order

Mr. Regue is a resident in the Native State of Mysore, & it seems doubtful whether he can be granted a certificate of naturalisation.

The L. says that any person who is actually residing in any part of the territories under the control of the East India Company" may be granted a certificate of naturalisation.

Act XXX of 1852 applies to any person actually residing in any part of the territories under the control of the E. I. Company.

2. This affidavit should be on one Rupee stamped paper, but this point need not be considered until it is decided whether he can be granted letters of naturalisation.

It does not seem that a alien residing in a native State can be considered as a British Subject, at any rate by this Court. The terms of sec 12 of this Act point clearly to this conclusion.

This Govt. does not administer the executive government of Mysore. ^{The applicant} ~~He~~ can only be naturalized as a subject of Mysore, and natives of Mysore are not British subjects (vide Debat. 3 Government of India, page 142). Tupper, however, in "Our Indian protectorate" appears to think differently (vide pages 355 & 356), but his remarks are only of a general nature, and have not the same authority as Petr. can only be naturalized as a Brit. subject under the Aliens Naturalization Act ~~xxx~~ 1852 Sec. 1 provides that while actually residing within ~~the~~ ^{that} territory under Brit.

Govt. he may present his memorial. As he is not residing in such territory his application cannot be complied with.

basis of debate. Perhaps the applicant may be told that as he has resided in the native State of Mysore and in this Presidency, the Govt. cannot grant him the Govt. certificate of naturalization for which he
