From
The Government Epigraphist.

In Orders-

In letter no 96 Public of 21-1-99. The Resident in Mysore was requested to supply the Govt.
Epigraphist with a copy of Mr Nice's Gazette of Mysore & Coorg.
No reply has been received to that letter, but apparently the volumes have been received - A second copy of the work is now to be now required for Dr. Hultzsch's own use, that already received being for use in the office - Dr. Hultzsch is now on furlough, & by the time he returns, his canoe and will probably have returned from his, & the book will then be available.

The Chief Secretary to Government.

I. and II., which Dr. Hultzsch wants for his use. He reports that he had purchased from his own pocket a copy of the old edition of these volumes, to which he had frequently to refer. The copy of the new edition of this work ordered

Dr. H's reference. No change has been made for the copy already supplied, but the book is a Mysore Govt. publication, & it is a question whether this Govt. would be justified in asking for a second copy.

Dr. Hultzsch is working by correspondence from Europe - but it seems hardly necessary to supply him with duplicates of books of reference which are in his office.
