NOTE FOR THE under Secy.

In August last
the Resident in Travancore Cochin was supplied with a copy of the Madras Lunatic Asylum Code, for the use of the Dewan of Travancore who had applied for it.

2. A second copy was supplied in November last for record in the Resident's Office.

3. The Resident now applies, on behalf of the Dewan, for a copy of the "Rules regarding the management of lunatic asylums of the care & custody of their inmates in British India".

4. There is no such Code in the library either here or at Madras, & if one existed, applicable to the whole of Br. India, it would surely have been communicated to this Govt. Part I of

a collection of the enactments relating to Lunatics, which are generally applicable.

Orders are requested as to whether the G. of I. may be asked if a Code, such as that applied for, is available, or whether the Resident may be told that this Govt. is not in possession of such a Code, pointing out at the same time that the Madras Code contains the general laws on the subject.

But this Govt. is not in possession of such a Code.
