Sir,

With reference to the endorsement from Government No. 929, dated 3rd April 1899 referring to my former remarks letter No. 256, dated 30th March 1899 from Miss E. L. Pogson Meteorological Reporter to the Government of Madras in para 2 of which she claims pay in lieu of notice of discharge under article 478 Civil Service Regulations, I have the honour to draw attention to Government Order No. 191, Public, dated 28th February 1898 from which it will be gathered that Miss Pogson has already been informed of the fact that the subject of the reorganisation of the Indian Observatories is under consideration and that she should retire and that on her retirement, she would be granted a pension of Rs. 250 a month. The date however from which effect should be given to the retirement is not mentioned in that Order. It is therefore for Government to decide whether her request that she may be granted 3 months pay in lieu of notice, under article 478 Civil Service Regulations, and that the pension that may be granted, should be made payable to her with effect from the 28th June 1899, may be complied with. The gratuity admissible will be chargeable to the Head of Account to which her salary was charged.

Your,

Your Endorsement under ~~reply~~ and its enclosure are herewith returned.

I have the honour to be,

It is submitted that although Miss Payson was aware that the subject of the reorganization was under consideration, & that she would have to retire on pension when the control of the Indian Observation was transferred to the Govt. of India, the intimation given to her in G.O. No. 191 Public dated 2.2.98 cannot be regarded as a definite notice of abolition of app't. from a given date, and that she has just grounds to claim a gratuity in lieu of notice under Art. 478 C.S.R. Miss Payson cannot get full 3 months pay as gratuity - under art.
478 C.S.R. the gratuity is the "enrollment" for the period by which the notice actually given falls short of three months.

Miss Payson received her notice on 28th March & she drew pay on active duty up to 31st March.
Her pension will be payable 3 months from 28th March i.e. from 28th June. The gratuity will therefore be payable from 1st April to 27th June, for she cannot draw pay for any days on which pension is payable.

My dear Mr. [Name], I am sorry to hear that you are possibly even to hasten the payment of my three months pay & the sanction of my passage money. I am in a terrible fix, not being able to get any pay or pension, & so thoroughly dressed up with this oppressive heat, that I am unable to get off to England as soon as possible. I would not certainly have asked for an extension of six months, had I known should not have been able to draw them three months pay as per the ^{without delay} order, but would sure that would be available at once. Can you not kindly get a D. O. order passed, allowing me to draw both the three months pay & the passage money in advance, pending sanction, & thus help me under the circumstances stated.
